A WARD FOR SURGICAL CASES.

REPORT FOR 1904.

THE Committee have pleasure in submitting to the Governors and Contributors their Report for 1904. In so doing they thankfully record the fact that the Hospital completed on 16th August twenty-one years of useful work. During this long period, and notwithstanding numerous difficulties, steady progress has been made, and the Committee now have every reason to congratulate the supporters and friends of the Institution on a Hospital standing on its own freehold land, and provided in almost every particular with up-to-date equipments. This satisfactory result has only been attained by the cordial and generous co-operation of friends, past and present, interested in the work, and the Committee again express their deep gratitude for the ever-ready help accorded them in their efforts. Tables showing the progress of the income of the Hospital since it was re-built in 1895 will be found on page 33. Since the wards were opened, up to and including 31st December last, 9,122 in-patients have been admitted. The yearly increase in the number of admissions indicates the need and usefulness of the Hospital to the poor of the surrounding districts.

The number of cases treated in the wards as compared with that of the preceding year, is as follows :—

	1903.	1904.
Cases in the Hospital at the beginning of the year	20	41
Cases admitted during the year	634	722
	<hr/> 654	<hr/> 763

The total out-patient attendances during the year were 53,782 as compared with 50,555 in 1903,—an increase of 3,227.

During the year, isolated cases of infectious disease have from time to time occurred in the wards, but nothing approaching an epidemic has prevailed, and it has never been necessary to close a ward for more than a few days at a time for the purpose of cleaning and disinfecting.

The Committee note with satisfaction that, although a considerably larger number of patients was treated during the year, the total cost was only £122 11s. 6d. more than in 1903. While every effort is made to restrict expenditure so far as practicable, the Committee feel that they cannot reasonably hope for any great reduction in the annual ordinary expenditure; indeed, in view of the changes necessitated by surgical and medical progress on the one hand, and the cost of work and supplies on the other, it seems inevitable that the tendency must be towards an increase.

The total ordinary income was £4,117 7s. 2d., as compared with £4,295 13s. 8d. in 1903, a reduction of £178 6s. 6d. The Institution is always greatly indebted to receipts from entertainments. In 1904 there was a falling-off in the income from this source of £273 4s. 7d.

The Council of King Edward's Fund again granted the Hospital, by direction of the President, H.R.H the Prince of Wales, a donation of £400. Increased grants were received from both the Hospital Sunday and Saturday Funds, the amounts granted being £306 13s. 4d. and £117 12s. od. respectively. For these valuable contributions, and for the hardly less valuable public recognition of the work of the Hospital which they imply, the Committee are very thankful.

Petitions were addressed to some of the City Companies, and the Committee gratefully acknowledge the following donations:—

The Worshipful Company of Fishmongers	£21
„ „ Goldsmiths	25
„ „ Grocers	50
„ „ Merchant Taylors	21
„ „ Saddlers	5
„ „ Skinners	10 10s.

Congregational Collections were, in the aggregate, of less amount than in the previous year. From Christ Church, Lancaster Gate, the Rev. Prebendary Ridgeway kindly forwarded £175 18s. 4d., and other churches generously contributed smaller, but none the less most acceptable, donations. The Committee are greatly indebted to Prebendary Ridgeway and the Hospital's many kind friends of his congregation for this continued and much valued annual support.

The warm and practical sympathy shewn for the welfare of the Hospital and its inmates by the children of various congregations, and the Ministering Children's League, is most encouraging to the Committee,—notably of the children of Christ Church, Lancaster Gate; St. Matthew's, Bayswater; St. Stephen's, Westbourne Park; St. John's, Paddington; and St. Matthew's, Ealing Common; whose several contributions appear on pages 44 and 51. In recording their grateful appreciation of this valuable assistance, the Committee venture to express the hope that the clergy and ministers, who see so much of the working of the Institution and the results achieved, will continue and even increase a support which is not only valuable in itself, but doubly so as tending to widen the circle of the Hospital's contributors.

The Committee desire cordially to thank those friends who renewed their Annual Subscriptions for the endowed cots, a list of which is given on page 65.

The Misses Manville and their pupils, now for some time excellent friends to the Hospital, have most kindly undertaken to name a cot the "Leinster House School" Cot, by contributing a Life donation of £300—the money for which will be raised at intervals by means of "fairy plays" and in other ways by the pupils of the school. A first contribution of £71 12s. 7d. will appear in the Hospital accounts early in 1905, as the result of two performances of a fairy operetta, "Red Riding Hood," given at the Royal Albert Hall Theatre.

A retrospect of the Hospital since its establishment, sent by Mr. Douglas Owen to the Governors and friends of the Institution on his appointment as Chairman, which co-incided with the "coming of age" of the Hospital, met with a very kind response, certain of the recipients having been so good as to send donations amounting in all to £38 13s. od. Copies can still be obtained of the Secretary.

Amongst the individual donors, special mention may be made of the following, viz.:—

George Hanbury, Esq. ...	...	£200
The Family of the late Sir Joseph
Sebag-Montefiore ...	...	50
Mrs. Gooch ...	...	50
Mrs. N. T. Lawrence ...	...	25
Mrs. Wiggins ...	...	25
Duncan Mackinnon, Esq. ...		21
Edward Clifton Brown, Esq. ...		20
Cecil Oliverson, Esq. ...	...	20
Miss Tidswell ...	...	20

A Ball, kindly organised by Mrs. Amyas Longstaffe at the Empress Rooms on 11th May, realised the handsome sum of £134 8s. 2d. for the Hospital. The Committee heartily thank Mrs. Longstaffe and the friends who so ably assisted her in making the ball such a success, for this most acceptable contribution.

The thanks of the Committee are also due for £40 forwarded to the Hospital by the Great Western Railway and Paddington Borough Council Band, as the result of a Concert on 24th November, kindly given by the Band at the Paddington Baths, Sir R. Melvill Beachcroft in the Chair. Other friends have during the year sent various sums, raising the total received from Concerts and Entertainments to £188 14s. 8d.

A welcome and valuable addition of £2,700 to the funds of the Institution was received from Legacies, full particulars of which will be found on page 54. The receipt of these sums enabled the Committee to re-instate the endowment fund for the "Blythewood" Cot, for which a donation of £1,000 was given by Mr. George Hanbury in 1883, but which he allowed to be advanced towards the purchase of the freehold of the Hospital. The Committee were also able to pay £200 off the loan from the bankers, reducing the amount on 31st December to £1,500, and to assist, to the extent of £700, the finances of the Convalescent Home. Were it not for such occasional windfalls the Committee would hardly be able to continue the work of the Hospital, the total income from all other sources being insufficient to keep the Hospital out of debt. The Institution has absolutely nothing in the way of a "nest egg," its only investments being earmarked for the several special endowments. A draft Form of Bequest will be found on page 73.

The London Needlework Guild again presented, through the Honourable Elizabeth Edwardes, Mrs. Basil Ellis, and Mrs. Leonard Cohen, a large parcel of clothing for the patients.

H.R.H. the Princess of Wales kindly sent a hamper of primroses for the wards—a gift greatly appreciated.

Amongst other gifts received were 12 handsome framed engravings, generously presented to the Hospital by Messrs. Leggatt Brothers; 26 bound volumes for the nurses' library from Mr. George Hanbury; a Harmonium from the Kyrle Society per Mr. C. W. Empson; and a large oak Notice Board for Legacies from Messrs. T. Henwood & Son. A complete list of Gifts is given on page 61.

To Miss Rendel and Miss B. M. Galpin the Committee are once more indebted for receiving, greatly to the benefit of the patients, several children into their Convalescent Homes at Charlwood, Surrey, and Roehampton Lane.

The Committee desire to thank the Rev. A. L. Lilley, Vicar, and the Clergy, of S. Mary's, Paddington Green, for continuing their services to the patients, and they also again express their obligations to the ladies who have kindly visited the wards for the purpose of amusing and entertaining the children.

Two changes took place in the constitution of the Committee during the year, the resignation of Mr. G. F. Neame being occasioned by the state of his health, and that of Mr. Alfred J. Waley by his inability to attend the meetings of the Board, owing to his change of residence to the country. Both gentlemen were members of the Board for some years, and always took an active interest in the conduct of its affairs. The Committee accepted their resignations with very much regret.

The following members of the Committee retire by rotation, and, being eligible, offer themselves for re-election, viz., the Rev. H. Russell Wakefield, Mr. J. C. Wardrop, and Mr. William Wallace.

The Committee gladly avail themselves of this opportunity of acknowledging their indebtedness to the Members of the Medical and Surgical Staff for their valuable and devoted services to the Hospital. Mr. Ewen C. Stabb having resigned, owing to his election as surgeon to another Hospital, Mr. Arthur Edmunds has been appointed to the vacant post of Surgeon to Out-Patients.

Upon the occasion of the Christmas Entertainment, the children of Mrs. Stirling and Mrs. Waley gave performances which greatly pleased the little patients; and, by the kindness of a friend of the Hospital, Miss Zetterberg, in Swedish national costume, recited some fairy tales which were much appreciated. The patients greatly enjoyed the entertainment, at which were present a large number of friends of the Hospital, including members of the Committee and Staff. The stage was erected and its fittings generously provided by Messrs. T. Henwood & Son, the large Christmas Tree being electrically illuminated, also free of charge, by Messrs. J. E. Spagnoletti & Co.; palms and plants, also, very kindly supplied by Miss Strudwick, greatly enhanced the decorations of the wards and the Hospital generally.

The Committee have once more to record their indebtedness to the Secretary, Mr. W. H.

Pearce, and the Matron, Miss S. Biddulph Pinchard, for their efforts to maintain the high excellence of the Hospital's internal administration.

In conclusion, the Committee earnestly appeal for contributions to enable them to pay off the debt of £1,500 still owing to the Bankers, and especially they solicit new and increased Annual Subscriptions for maintenance purposes.

CONVALESCENT HOME.

REPORT FOR 1904.

The number of children transferred from the Hospital to the Convalescent Home in 1904 was 172, being 45 more than in 1903. 16 children were in the Home on 1st January, making the total of patients for the year 188. The increase in the number of patients is chiefly attributable to the provision and maintenance of eight extra beds during the months July, August, and September, by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Wharrie, who each very generously gave £25 for the special purpose. In gratefully acknowledging this valuable assistance the Committee are glad to state that part of this money is still unexpended, and it is proposed to use the same for a similar purpose during the coming summer months.

The average length of stay of the patients was 31 days.

Too much importance cannot be attached to the utility of this branch of the Hospital's work, which, as the Committee would again point out, directly increases the usefulness of the Hospital, by enabling patients to be discharged from it, to go to the Home, sooner than would otherwise be possible, thus increasing the accommodation at the Hospital. The Committee therefore hope that many Subscribers to the Hospital who do not already contribute to the funds of the Home, may be induced by this consideration to do so.

The total ordinary income of the Home was £490 7s. 4d., and the expenditure £826 2s. 11d., the deficiency being met by the transfer of £700 from the Hospital funds, on receipt of legacies, out of which sum a debt of £400 to the Bankers was repaid.

The first cot to be endowed, viz., by Mrs. Harvey, in the Home has been named the "Norah Harvey" Cot, and the Committee very thankfully acknowledge Mrs Harvey's generous donation of £1,000 for this object.

A sum of £21 was, under the will of the late Miss Ann Williamson, kindly allocated to this Home by the Executor, H. Wells Eames, Esq., to whom the Committee return their best thanks.

The following are the other principal contributions received during the year :—

King Edward's Hospital Fund	...	...	£50
George Hanbury, Esq.	...	...	50
The Trustees of the "Delmar Charitable Trust"	...	...	10 10s.
Algernon Gilliat, Esq.	...	...	10
Mrs. Margaret Moke	...	...	10

for all of which the Committee return their hearty thanks.

A trellis screen, with Virginia-creeper plants, which, it is hoped, will in time form a shady arbour in the garden, was presented to the Home by Mr. Douglas Owen ; also some fruit trees for the kitchen garden by Mr. Robert Hanbury.

Upon various occasions the children have been invited to tea and entertained at the houses of the following friends :—Mrs. Court, the Rev. and Mrs. Eliot, Mr. and Mrs. George Hanbury, Mrs. Lionel Hanbury, Lady Holmes, Miss Johnson, and Mrs. Wardrop. To enable the patients to make some of these visits, Mr. B. Slocock very thoughtfully lent a conveyance. Some of the children have also been taken for greatly-enjoyed drives in the country by Mr. Edwards of Eton. For all such kindness the Committee are very grateful.

The cordial thanks of the Committee are again due to the Honorary Local Medical Officers, Dr. Weaver Adams and Dr. Ralph P. Williams, for placing their valuable services at the disposal of the Home whenever required ; and they again express their approbation of the care and attention bestowed by the matron, Miss Anderson, upon the convalescents, and on the affairs of the Home generally.

The Committee renew their thanks to the Rev. H. P. Eliot, Rector of Slough, for his kindness in continuing the regular weekly service for the In-Patients ; to those friends who were good enough to visit the Home ; and also to those who sent acceptable and useful gifts of clothing, toys, eggs, &c.

The Home is open to visitors every day (except Sunday) between 2 and 4 o'clock. The Committee, while greatly appreciating the kindness of a few friends, regret that the number of local residents interesting themselves in the Home still remains very small.

The Christmas Entertainment, given on 28th December, was very well attended, not only by local friends interested in the Home, but by friends from London, including some members of the Medical Staff. For the occasion, chairs were very kindly lent by Mr. Goddard, and plants for decoration by Mr. Hiatt. The Entertainment consisted of some clever conjuring and thought-reading by Mr. Alfred Capper, and was much enjoyed by the children.

“ POUND DAY.”

The Committee have the pleasure to announce that it has been arranged to have a “ Pound ” Day at the Home on Wednesday, 3rd May, at which it is hoped that ladies interested in the Hospital may be able to be present.

A Form of Contribution to the funds of either the Hospital or Convalescent Home will be found on page 75. Cheques should be made payable to the order of the Hospital or Home, as the case may be, and crossed London and County Banking Company, 1, Connaught Street, W.

The Committee again wish earnestly to call attention to the debt of £1,500 now owing to the Bankers. It is proposed to make a special effort early in the coming year to pay off this loan, and the Committee have the pleasure to announce a promise of £500 towards this object kindly made by a friend of the Hospital on the condition that the remainder of the money be obtained.
