STUDIES AND TEXTS

IN FOLKLORE, MAGIC,
MEDIEVAL ROMANCE, HEBREW APOCRYPHA
AND SAMARITAN ARCHÆOLOGY

WITH 14 PLATES AND 5 ILLUSTRATIONS

COLLECTED AND REPRINTED
BY
MOSES GASTER, PH. D.

LONDON:
MAGGS BROS.

AUTHOR'S PREFACE.

These studies and texts cover a somewhat wide field. They touch upon many subjects. A large number belong to the literature of the Apocrypha, others deal with the liturgy and Midrash; some belong to ancient fiction and mediaeval romance, and not a few are studies in folklore in the widest sense. A special section has been set aside for Samaritan texts, and notably Samaritan amluets. Biblical archaeology is the subject of some of the larger articles, and a few Rumanian texts with their translations have also been included. I have omitted however nearly all those Rumanian texts published by me without any translation. I have also been forced to omit others which have become inaccessible even to me. These articles written in many languages have all been reproduced in facsimile, reappearing here in the same form as they first appeared in the various journals. In spite of the incongruous appearance, the student, I think, will be grateful that I have retained them in their original form and with their pagination, references to them having been made by scholars; it will therefore be easy to trace them here.
