Written in manuscript on 1 page, 8vo.

This appears to be the physician's original copy of a notice probably cried by the common crier on the doctor's arrival in a new town. It was possibly kept on the fly-leaf of a book more as a draft for future reference than as a memorandum of the actual occasion. We learn by it that the doctor stayed 18 weeks in the important northern town of Newcastle and in Richmondshire (Yorks.). The value of this document of the embryonic period of modern medicine is enhanced by the fact that it is prefixed to a medical tract. It is an exceedingly early manuscript example of medical advertising.

Also included in the volume are the following:—

LULLUS, Raymundus: Ars Generalis, Nova Logica, Brevis Pictura Tabule Generalis, Disputatio quinque Sapientum, and other subsidiary treatises. Manuscript on 310 leaves of paper, 4to, written mainly by Stephanus Lannkchammer, cleric of the diocese of Passau, at Braunau (on the Inn, Bavaria) in 1454 and signed by him in full on fol. 62. With many curious diagrams in various coloured inks. Vellum.

A very remarkable and well preserved manuscript of the principal philosophic works of the great Catalan mystic philosopher Ramon Lull (died 1315).

There can be no doubt that this codex is copied from very good and authentic originals, since each treatise ends with the full subscription of the author with the date of composition. This tends to show that the MSS. from which Langkammer copied his text went back to a very genuine source.

For instance, the first subscription, that to the Ars Generalis on fol. 62 reads in full:

"Incepta fuit hec sciencia in mari in portu Tunicij (Tunis) in medio Septembris Anno Incarnacionis Millesimo ducentesimo nonagesimo tercio (1293) et fuit finita in eodem anno in Octobri Apiphanie in Civitate Neapolis ad honorem domini dei nostri et beate virginis Marie.

Scripta sunt hec per Stephanum Lannkchammer de Patavia, clericum eiusdem doicesis, Anno MCCCCLIII. in die sanctissimi principis apostolorum beati Petri ad Vincula, in opido Prawnow, duce Ludwico regnante per Bauoariam."
