- 6 Africa. From Hobo to Cannibal King. By C. J. Thornhill. With 16 plates, 8vo., cloth. [1928] (18/-) 6/6
 The author's long period of travel and adventure, big game shooting of all kinds—lions, buffaloes, elephants, hippopotami and crocodiles, his encounters with hostile native tribes, hairbreadth escapes from men, beasts and sickness, make a very exciting biography of real interest.
- 7 Africa. In the Footsteps of Livingstone. The Diaries and Travel Notes made by Alfred Dolman. Edited by John Irving. Frontispiece in colour, and many illustrations by the author, 8vo., cloth. 1924 (12/6) 4/6
 Dolman was born in 1827, and made three important expeditions into unexplored parts of South and Central Africa between 1845 and 1849, and a fourth expedition in 1851, when he met a mysterious and untimely death at the age of 24, being on his way to join forces with Dr. Livingstone.
- 8 Africa. Life in French Congo. By Gabrielle M. Vassal. With many illustrations from photographs taken by the author and Dr. Vassal, 8vo., cloth. 1927 (12/6) 5/-
 This book will enable readers to become acquainted with French Equatorial Africa, that country still so full of mystery, which conceals amidst impenetrable forests perhaps the greatest wealth of all France's Colonial Empire.
- 9 Africa. On the Trail of the Bushongo. An Account of a remarkable and hitherto unknown African people, their origin, art, high social and political organization and culture, derived from the author's personal experience amongst them. By E. Torday. With numerous illustrations from photographs, text figures and a folding map, 8vo., cloth. 1925 (21/-) 10/-

- 10 Africa. Pygmies and Bushmen of the Kalahari. An account of the hunting tribes inhabiting the great arid plateau of the Kalahari Desert, their precarious manner of living, habits, customs and beliefs, with some reference to Bushman Art. By S. S. Dornan. 37 illustrations from photographs, and a map, 8vo., cloth. 1925 (21/-) 10/-

- 11 Africa. The Spirit-Ridden Konde. A record of the interesting but steadily vanishing custom and ideas gathered during 24 years' residence amongst these shy inhabitants of the Lake Nyasa Region, from Witch-Doctors, Diviners, Hunters, Fishers, and every native source. By D. R. Mackenzie. 21 illustrations from photographs and a map, 8vo., cloth. 1925 (21/-) 10/-

- 12 Africa. Through Liberia. The Story of a woman's adventurous journey through the country of the "Human Leopards," etc. By Lady Dorothy Mills. Numerous illustrations from photographs, 8vo., cloth. 1926 (15/-) 4/6

Liberia is that West African republic which was founded by American philanthropists for repatriated negro slaves.

- 13 Africa. The Vanishing Tribes of Kenya. A description of the Manners and Customs of the primitive and interesting tribes dwelling on the vast Southern Slopes of Mount Kenya, and their fast disappearing native methods of life. By Maj. G. St. J. Orde Browne. Many illustrations from photographs and 2 maps, 8vo., cloth. 1925 (21/-) 10/-

- 14 Africa. The Wonderland of Big Game. An account of two trips through Tanganyika and Kenya. By A. Radclyffe Dugmore. With 8 monochrome reproductions from paintings by the author, 52 illustrations from photographs and a map, 8vo., cloth. 1929 (25/-) 10/6

Contents:—Great Crater of Ngora Ngora; Short trip to the Mara River; Journey to Marsabit; Various Game at Lasarmis Water-Hole; Interesting experiences with Elephants; Photographing Giraffe and Zebra; etc., etc.

- 15 Africa. Vanished Cities of Northern Africa. By Mrs. Steuart Erskine. With 8 plates in colour, and 32 illustrations by Major Benton Fletcher, 8vo., cloth. N.D. (24/-) 8/6

Wanderings and discoveries amongst the bygone glories of Africa, and sets forth the artistic and archaeological interests of the ruins of past civilisations.

- 16 Africa and Persia. Ten Thousand Miles in Two Continents. By Mrs. Patrick Ness. With 30 illustrations from photographs and map end-papers, 8vo., cloth. 1929 (12/6) 6/-

The author travelled from Cairo to Cape Town through the heart of Africa among strange tribes, and big game in Kenya Colony, also by car to Western Persia crossing the Syrian Desert.

- 17 America. Adventures in Bolivia. By C. H. Prodgers. With an introduction by R. B. Cunninghame Graham. Illustrated from the author's coloured sketches and photographs, 8vo., cloth. 1924 (12/6) 5/6

This book reveals a curious personality that might have stepped straight from the pages of Purchas or Hakluyt, and at the same time, helps to dispel some of the mist of ignorance and prejudice that has hung over the lives of the Spanish Conquerors.—From Mr. Cunninghame Graham's introduction.

- 18 America. The Colorado River, Yesterday, To-day and To-morrow. By Lewis R. Freeman. Many fine photographic illustrations and three maps, 8vo., cloth. 1923 (25/-) 13/-

The work of a Norwegian journalist sent to report on General Nobile's airship expedition. The theatrical display attending the start of the expedition from its base to the North Pole, are brought into sharp contrast with the series of disasters which resulted, involving many lives, among them Amundsen, the greatest Norwegian explorer.

- 41 Arctic. A Naturalist at the Poles. The Life, Work and Voyages of Dr. W. S. Bruce, the Polar Explorer. By R. N. Rudmose Brown. With 5 chapters by W. G. Burn Murdoch. 38 illustrations, mainly from photographs, and 3 maps, 8vo., cloth. 1923 (25/-) 10/-

Dr. Bruce was acknowledged to be the highest authority on Polar exploration of his time.

- 42 Arms and Armour. A Record of European Armour and Arms through Seven Centuries. By Sir Guy Francis Laking, Keeper of the King's Armoury. With an introduction by Baron de Cosson, and a Record of Armour Sales, 1881-1924, by Francis H. Cripps-Day. With over 2,000 fine illustrations, many from photographs, 6 volumes, 4to., buckram, leather title labels. 1922-1925 (£21/-/-) £7/17/6

"Sir Guy Laking knew intimately every piece of armour in the United Kingdom and all the armour of note on the Continent."—Times Literary Supplement.

"At least I may claim for my pictures that they are all drawings or photographs of genuine pieces. I say frankly that my long experience in handling the work of the old armourers has made me bold to speak with some authority on what my eyes and fingers have learned the technical aspect of ancient armour and weapons, the subject of this book."—From the author's preface.

- 43 Artists of the 1890's. By John Rothenstein. With 7 illustrations, sm. 8vo., cloth. 1928 (10/6) 5/-

No other period of art has perhaps quite the same fascination as that in which Beardsley worked and the Yellow Book was published. The artists are Whistler, Greaves, Steer, Sickert, Conder, Beardsley, Ricketts, Shannon, Rothenstein and Max Beerbohm.

- 44 Asquith. The Earl of Oxford and Asquith. Fifty Years of Parliament. With 16 portraits, 2 vols., 8vo., cloth. 1926 (50/-) 12/-

Opening with the year 1868 this book covers the struggles, triumphs and failures of no fewer than eleven Parliaments.

- 45 Assam. The Angami Nagas, with notes on Neighbouring Tribes. By J. H. Hutton. Numerous illustrations, 8vo., cloth. 1921 (40/-) 15/-

- 46 Assam. The Sema Nagas. By J. H. Hutton. With a foreword by Henry Balfour. Numerous illustrations, 8vo., cloth. 1921 (40/-) 15/-

- 47 Austen, Jane. Complete Works. Adelphi Edition, comprising—Pride and Prejudice; Sense and Sensibility; Northanger Abbey; Mansfield Park; Emma; Persuasion; Lady Susan and the Watsons. With an introduction by Frank Swinnerton, 7 vols., cr. 8vo., cloth, in cloth case. 1927-30 (35/-) 21/-

This is the only complete edition of Jane Austen's works in print.

- 48 Barnum, P. T. By M. R. Werner. With illustrations and portraits from contemporary sources, 8vo., cloth. 1923 (16/-) 6/-

Described by himself as "The Prince of Humbugs," Barnum was during his lifetime one of the most widely known figures in England and America. Jester, charlatan, philosopher, he made and lost fortunes. Mr. Werner's book is filled with humorous and astonishing episodes.

- 49 Battersea Enamels, 1750-1756. Selected and described, with an introduction by Egan Mew. With 6 plates in colour and 72 in monochrome, cr. 4to., cloth. 1926 (17/6) 7/6

No book on this subject has hitherto been published. Until recently the state of knowledge of the 18th century English Enamels has been analogous to that which stood for information about native porcelains some 50 or 60 years ago.

- 50 Bayard. The Chevalier Bayard. A study in Fading Chivalry, by Samuel Shellabarger. With illustrations from old paintings, plans, etc., 8vo., cloth. N.D. (18/-) 7/6

This is the only complete, and the first, biography in English of the famous "Chevalier sans peur et sans reproche," whose death marked the passing of the age of Chivalry.

- 51 Beardsley Period. An Essay in Perspective, by Osbert Burdett. Cr. 8vo., cloth. 1925 (7/6) 3/-

"There has been a good many books about 'the Nineties,' but none satisfactory until this. It is one of the ablest, most amusing, and most excellently written books of criticism which has been published for years."—J. C. SQUIRE in the Observer.

- 52 Belloc, Hilaire. A Conversation with an Angel and other Essays. Sm. 8vo., cloth. 1928 (7/6) 3/6

Essays on Academic Hate, Dickens Revisited, "Vathek," Renan, Witchcraft, Macaulay, Pavement Artists, Bridges, etc., etc.

- 53 Benson, Arthur Christopher. His Diary. Edited by Percy Lubbock. With portraits and illustrations, 8vo., cloth. N.D. (24/-) 3/-

A. C. Benson was Master of Magdalene College, Cambridge, and was formerly Assistant Master at Eton. His brilliant career was crowded if not eventful, and in these personal papers, are a number of amusing and interesting sidelights on the great and the near-great.

- 54 Benson, A. C. Memories and Friends. 19 portraits, 8vo., cloth. 1924 (16/-) 3/6

Thos. Hare; Lady Ponsonby; Dr. Warre; Oscar Browning; J. D. Bouchier; Rupert Brooke; etc.

- 55 Beowulf. Translated by C. K. Scott Moncreiff. With an introduction by the late Viscount Northcliffe. 8vo., cloth. 1921 (7/6) 3/-
An excellent translation of this old English epic that will prove of great use to students of Old English Literature.

- 412 Navarre. Queen Margot (Marguerite de Valois) Wife of Henry of Navarre. By H. Noel Williams. With a portrait, 8vo., cloth. 1911 3/-
"At no epoch in French history have women played a more prominent part than the 16th century. Their influence pervaded religion, politics, literature, and the arts. They protested Reformers, defied Popes, ruled Kings, and shared every hazard and danger of war. Marguerite de Valois' career is the very quintessence of romance. . ."
From the preface.
- 413 Pandour Trenck. An account of the Life of Baron Franciscus von der Trenck, 1710-1749. By Oskar Teichman. With illustrations from contemporary prints and a map, 8vo., cloth. 1927 (10/6) 3/6
Baron Trenck, of whom Carlyle speaks in his "Frederick the Great," was a warrior blessed with such a spirit of bravado and success in leadership, swordsmanship, and the frequent ways of love that the book is a discovery.
- 414 Pepys, Samuel. Mr. Pepys, An Introduction to the Diary, together with a Short Sketch of his Later Life, by Dr. J. R. Tanner. Cr. 8vo., cloth. 1925 (7/6) 3/-

- 416 Poetry. A Survey of Modernist Poetry. By Laura Riding and Robert Graves. Cr. 8vo., cloth. 1929 (7/6) 3/-
This is a sympathetic and authoritative study of the untraditional elements in modern poetry—the first of its kind. The Authors treat the work of T. S. Eliot, Edith, Osbert and Sacheverell Sitwell, E. E. Cummings, Gertrude Stein, Marianne Moore, J. Crowe Ransom, and of other "modernist" rather than merely "modern" poets of England and America.
- 417 Psychology and Folklore, by R. R. Marett. Cr. 8vo., cloth. 1920 (7/6) 3/-
This book discusses the methods of the study of man, and should be of great interest both to psychologists and students of folk-lore, while it will assist in interpreting history as the expression of our common human nature.
- 418 Récamier. Madame Récamier and her Friends. By H. Noel Williams. With a portrait, 8vo., cloth. 1925 (6/-) 3/-
"There are few more interesting figures in the social life of the 19th century than that of Madame Récamier. Distinguished alike for her beauty, her virtue, her charm of manner, and her goodness of heart, she reigned for upwards of 50 years the almost undisputed queen of Parisian society. . . ."—From the preface.

- 419 Rossetti. A critical study on his Art, by Ford Madox Hueffer. With 32 fine photogravure plates from the paintings and drawings of D. G. Rossetti, 8vo., cloth. 1914 3/-

Shakespeare's references to famous lawyers such as Sir Edward Coke and to causes célèbres such as Shelley's case and the trial of Sir Walter Raleigh. The author has made some fresh discoveries which are founded upon a comparison of certain passages in the plays with the contemporary case-law of that period.
- 422 Shelley, P. B. The Letters of, containing material never before collected, edited by Roger Ingpen. 2 vols., cr. 8vo., cloth. 1914 7/6
"My single aim and intention in compiling these volumes, was to gather together in easy and convenient form, as large a number of Shelley's letters as present circumstances would permit."—Editor.
- 423 Shelley's Lost Letters to Harriet. Edited with an introduction by Leslie Hotson. 8vo., cloth. 1930 (7/6) 3/6
After Harriet Westbrook's death by suicide in 1816, her family instituted proceedings in Chancery to prevent Shelley from recovering the custody of his children. Ten of Shelley's letters were exhibited in the court as evidence against his character. The contents of the exhibits have remained unknown, and they have been an object for research for more than 70 years. Dr. Hotson has discovered them.
- 424 South Seas. Tropic Shadows. Memories of the South Seas, together with reminiscences of the author's sea meetings with Joseph Conrad. By A. Safroni-Middleton. 16 plates from photographs, 8vo., cloth. 1927 (12/6) 5/6
