PRICED CATALOGUES.

AFTER each sale these catalogues are issued with the prices realised printed in the margin opposite each lot, thus giving at a glance a reliable guide to values.

The final test of value must always be auction prices rather than the figures given in books of reference, for changing times and fashions soon render the latter obsolete and misleading.

On the average we issue twelve Coin and Medal catalogues a year, some of which are usually of sales of important collections. The priced catalogues are posted to subscribers as soon as ready, usually about a week after the date of sale and the subscription is

ONE GUINEA per annum.

The tickets are enclosed in an ormolu frame, the door glazed. Also an engraving in an ebonized frame, by James Stow, published in 1825, of these silver Tickets, which belonged to G. R. Barrett, a former manager of Vauxhall Gardens, and from which Stow engraved the plate.

∴ These Tickets, which are in fine condition and of great rarity, were issued at 25/- each, afterwards £2 2s. as subscription passes to the famous Gardens. Each Ticket admitted two persons every week-night during the season of issue. There are good grounds for attributing the designs to William Hogarth. The Gardens—originally known as the New Spring Gardens—were, from about 1712 to 1860, the scene of musical and spectacular entertainments; not only patronised by the vulgar crowd, but such celebrated personages as Dr. Johnson, Goldsmith, Hogarth, Garrick and other persons of repute, from Addison to Dickens, might have been seen in their days within the Gardens.

∴ Marylebone Gardens were situated on the site of what is now Beaumont and Devonshire Streets, Upper Harley Street, and neighbourhood. They were opened towards the end of the seventeenth century, being mentioned by Pepys in 1668. The Gardens were formed by adding to the old "Rose" Gardens, an adjacent bowling green; they were celebrated for Plays; and, according to Sir John Fielding, for music, wine, and plum-cake.

Handel wrote the music for some of the entertainments, and often visited the Gardens. Dibdin made his debut here, and Chatterton provided at least one play.

The silver Tickets of admission—now so rare—were issued in 1738-39, at twelve shillings each. At that time the Gardens were some half a mile from London. After many vicissitudes the Gardens were finally closed about 1778, and their site built on.
