"My object in publishing this Catalogue is to bring to the notice of many of my friends who are ardent Print Collectors the fascination of 'grangerizing,' or extra-illustrating. I selected Walpole's Letters for extension by extra-illustrating not only on account of their engrossing interest, but because they mention almost every person of note from the year 1735, when he commenced, until the time of their author's death in 1797."—Introduction.

 "Written by Ben: Johnson undr Sr Ben: Rudyards Picture
 Cou'd wee (as here his Figure) see his Mind,
 Words would be Speechless, where a Soul wee find
 To High, To humble Knowledge without Pride,
 With Knowledge Zeal, who makes Virtue his Guide
 Not the Times, Who Chose rather to be Good
 Than Rich or Great; who so well understood Yet Practis'd not Court Arts, for all his friends found that he Lov'd them for Themselves, not Ends, Just, beyond reach of Bribes, so Constant Still
 As fortune wants that Good, Nature that Ill,
 Which he can Wish or Fear, and to do's Live
 That he dos want a Foe, even to Forgive.
 Copy'd from Mr. Benjohnsons [sic] own hand."
