EARLY PORTUGUESE BOOKS IN THE
LIBRARY OF HIS MAJESTY THE KING OF PORTUGAL

DESCRIBED with exact collations, and descriptive historical, literary, biographical and bibliographical essays both in English and Portuguese by H.M. King Manuel of Portugal. With hundreds of facsimile reproductions of title-pages, woodcuts, initials, and colophons, many printed in red and black, several plates printed in monochrome by Emery Walker Ltd., and two colour plates by Ganymed.

In the long historical introduction to the work in Vol. I His Majesty explains his reasons for writing this book.

The work gives for the first time a complete survey of Portuguese typography, book-decoration and woodcuts of the sixteenth century, and will prove to be an indispensable bibliography for every important Library, while, at the same time, owing to the richness of the illustrative material reproduced, it deserves a place in every Museum of Fine Arts, and in every Print Department.

The collection described in this magnificent work consists of a great number of the more interesting books printed in Portugal between 1489 and 1600, also some important Portuguese books printed outside that country during the sixteenth century. It is noteworthy that the collection is rich in unique items which are fully described for the first time.

All the principal printers of Portugal of the sixteenth century are well represented, besides some characteristic examples of fifteenth-century presses.

In illustration of the books in the collection, some illuminated manuscripts and Royal autograph letters from the fifteenth century downwards, all from the Royal owner's collection, have been included, and reproductions given from them.

The work is large quarto, handsomely printed at the Cambridge University Press, and bound in cloth.

Volume I contains lviii and 636 pages; Volume II, xii and 820 pages. The indices (of authors, titles, towns, and printers) will be included in the third volume.

A Limited Edition of 650 copies is being printed at £25 net (for the set of three volumes).

An extremely interesting panoramic view showing the infant settlement of Albany, Western Australia, comprising about a dozen small houses or huts.

Owing to various French expeditions which had visited the Western Coast of Australia it was feared that France intended to form a settlement there, the Colonial Office therefore suggested that Darling should form several small settlements there, and in November, 1826, the Brig "Amity" set sail with troops and convicts, under Major Edmund Lockyer, to form a penal establishment in King George's Sound. It arrived on Christmas Day, and Lockyer founded a village which was afterwards known as Albany, and formerly annexed the territory on Jan. 21, 1827.
