Liverpool Royal Infirmary.

One Hundred and Sixty-third Report.

To Subscribers.

An effort is being made to add to the number and amount of the Annual Subscriptions, and the Committee would be glad if you could see your way to make some addition to your contribution, and to induce some of your friends to become Subscribers. With the greatest economy the Annual Expenditure exceeds the Ordinary Receipts by over £2,000, and there are many directions in which expansion is desirable if funds were available.

New Out-Patient Department.

Report for the Year 1911.

In reviewing the year which has just passed, those entrusted with the management of the Royal Infirmary feel that it was one which has seen more changes than any year since the opening of the present building.

The general work of the hospital in the wards has been performed in the usual satisfactory manner.

The opening of the New Out-Patient Department by the Earl of Sefton in March, has placed at the service of the Staff a magnificent building, fitted with the latest appliances, which has enabled them to deal in a more expeditious and satisfactory manner with the large and ever-increasing number of attendances given in the department; in fact, it is often a wonder to many how the work, especially of the special departments, was ever done satisfactorily in the portion of the main building previously allotted for this work. The old Out-Patient department, the Dispensary, together with other rooms, have now been altered and fitted up, part for the new X-Rays department, and part for accident wards, with five beds for emergency cases and rooms for the treatment of casualties. The latter have been in use since November; the accident wards were finished and ready for use at the end of the year, and it is hoped that the X-Rays department will soon move into their new and extended premises, where the improved accommodation will enable this important and increasing work to be performed more efficiently.

It will be still fresh in the minds of everyone how the resources of the hospital were taxed at the time of the great strike riot on Sunday, August 13th, when some 200 cases were treated in the hospital in about two hours; without the New Out-Patient building we should have been unable to have dealt with this emergency in such an efficient manner, and the thanks of the Committee and Subscribers are due to the Staff, both Medical and Nursing, for the promptness in which they dealt with these cases. This sudden demand greatly depleted our stock of dressings, thereby putting the hospital to very considerable expense in replacing them.

During the year we have extended electric lighting throughout the hospital and residential block, and the three lifts are also being electrified with a view to economy in working, and to meet the costs of this extension we have devoted unappropriated legacies.

As stated at the commencement there have been many changes during the year: we have dealt with the structural changes, and now we mention those relating to the personnel of the hospital.

It is with the greatest regret that the Committee have to record the resignation by Mr. Brocklebank, on the 30th June, of the position of Chairman of the Committee, after a service of 44 years on the Committee; for 30 years of which he was Treasurer, and 5 years Chairman. His munificent gifts and devoted interest in the welfare of the hospital are well known. It is a source of great satisfaction to know that the Infirmary will still have the benefit of his experience and advice as a member of the Committee.

In accordance with the laws, the terms of office of Mr. F. T. Paul, Senior Honorary Surgeon, and Mr. A. Bernard, Honorary Surgeon to the Specific department, expired during this year. The Committee desire to place on record the fullest appreciation of the value of their distinguished services, and express their regret that the course of events should have ended their co-operation, although as consulting Honorary Surgeons the institution will retain their advice and assistance.

To the vacated positions the election committee elected Mr. T. C. Litler Jones and Dr. F. P. Wilson, and to the vacancy thus created in the Assistant staff, they elected Mr. H. F. Woolfenden.

Miss Cameron having resigned the position of Matron, Miss Cummins, from the Cumberland Infirmary, was elected, and took up her duties in April ; and Miss Ainslie, the Assistant-Matron, having received an appointment at Sunderland, resigned in November. Miss Jackson, from St. George's Hospital, London, was elected in her place.

The Liverpool School of Tropical Diseases, which is attached to the University, having felt that their important work could be carried on in a more satisfactory way if they had ward accommodation near to the University to enable the students to watch the constant changes in patients suffering from these diseases, approached this Committee to see if such accommodation could be provided. Negotiations are now in progress, and it is hoped that they will result in the making of satisfactory arrangements.

During the year funds for the endowment of beds have been presented to the Institution by Mrs. Bickersteth, in memory of her husband, the late E. R. Bickersteth ; Mrs. Hugh McCubbin, in memory of the late Thomas Bowden ; and the executors of the late Thomas Davies, in accordance with his will. The value of this permanent form of gift is gratefully recognised.

It is with regret that the Committee have to record the resignation of Mr. J. L. Birkett, after 43 years service on the Board of Management, and report the election of Mr. H. Wade Deacon to fill the vacancy.

It is encouraging, especially in these uncertain times, to be able to report an increase in the list of subscriptions which contrasts with the reduced contribution from the Hospital

Sunday and Saturday Fund—£2,842 as against £3,004 last year—a loss of over £160. The strike last summer probably accounts for the falling off, but we again tender our grateful thanks for this financial assistance. Legacies and special donations have come to £9,600; those for endowment of beds have been invested, and the balance used towards the special and general expenditure of this year. Here it may be well to say that as might be expected, after over twenty years' use, a number of things require renewing, and we are faced with a probable expenditure of over £1,200 in altering and enlarging the Laundry to bring it up to date, and to enable it to cope with the demands partly occasioned by increases in the resident staff. Ordinary expenses continue to expand annually owing to the increased cost of provisions, coal, etc. Receipts were £13,763, and the expenditure £19,476, a difference of £5,713, which brings the debt to £8,217.

The cases admitted to the wards were 3,954, 161 more than during the previous year. There was a reduction of 626 in the number of individuals attending the Out-Patient Department, but the re-attendances, probably owing to present methods of dressing wounds, increased by 13,400, bringing the total of attendances given throughout the year to 90,863.

The press has been full of many opinions as to what effect the recent legislation will have upon the voluntary contributions to hospitals, but whatever the actual results may eventually be, let us hope that our friends and subscribers may be touched with the feeling expressed in the following lines:—

“We can all do more than we have done,
And be not a whit the worse;
It never was loving that emptied the heart,
Nor giving that emptied the purse.”
