MANCHESTER

MEDICAL SOCIETY

1948-49

Printed by

PERCY BROTHERS LIMITED, THE HOTSPUR PRESS.

THE LIBRARY is open daily from 9-30 until 5-30 (Saturdays 9-30 until 12-30), and also during each evening meeting. Also the Library will be open on Tuesday and Thursday until 8 p.m., the exact periods will be announced on the meeting notices. Members are allowed to have six volumes at one time. Books may be obtained on personal application, or by a written order signed by the member specifying the books he requires and the manner in which he desires them to be sent, or by a telephone message to be subsequently confirmed by a written order.

The time allowed for the reading of periodicals is two weeks.

The time allowed for the reading of books is one month, except in the case of books which have been in the Library for a shorter period than six months, for which the time allowed is two weeks.

Additional copies of books in demand are obtained as required from Lewis's Medical and Scientific Library. Of these, each member is entitled to not more than one volume at one time, and the time allowed for reading is two weeks.

Members are invited to recommend books for purchase.

G. WILSON, Librarian.

Telephone No., ARDwick 3074.

The Committee would be pleased if Members would submit any corrections in writing so that future editions may be accurate.

Report of the Committee for 1948-49.

THE membership of the Society is now 1,057, as compared with 1,027 last year. During the session, the Society has elected 1 Honorary Member, 84 ordinary members, and has lost 54 members as follows: Life members 4, ordinary members, 6 by death; 19 by resignation; and 25 in accordance with Law 10.

The membership of the Society is now composed as follows: Honorary members, 32; life members, 105; ordinary members, 920.

The Committee reports with regret the deaths of the following members: Prof. A. H. Burgess, Past President and Life Member; Prof. D. Dougal, Past President and Life Member; Mr. R. Ollerenshaw, Life Member; Dr. C. C. Heywood, Life Member; Dr. M. P. S. Clarke, Ordinary Member; Dr. J. S. Cooper, Ordinary Member; Dr. H. E. Edlin, Ordinary Member; Dr. J. Ghosh, Ordinary Member; Dr. H. I. C. Gill, Ordinary Member; Miss E. L. Willis, Ordinary Member.

The following meetings have been held during the session: Annual meeting, 5 ordinary meetings, clinical meeting, 2 joint meetings and 2 special meetings. The average attendance was: Annual meeting, 261; ordinary meetings, 233; clinical meeting, 180; joint meetings, 325; special meetings, 45.

* * * *

In the last report mention was made of the steadily increasing attendance at meetings. The past session has seen a further increase and now the Physiology Theatre is becoming inadequate to seat the ever-increasing number of members and visitors.

The most important matter to report is perhaps the position in regard to the proposed amalgamation of all the Medical Societies in Manchester. Matters have now been brought to the point of virtual conclusion. The Manchester Medical Society has voted at two specially convened meetings and has approved the provisional Bye-Laws to amalgamate with the other societies. There is little doubt that the proposals will be agreed to by the other societies in the very near future. The next step will be the appointment of a provisional Committee and we may expect to see the new and comprehensive Manchester Medical Society in full operation in 1950/51. The drafting of the new Bye-Laws has been a work of considerable magnitude and the committee feels sure that the members will wish to have placed on record their appreciation of the work done by the Drafting Committee. The special thanks of the Society are due to Dr. Wm. Brockbank, who acted as Chairman of the Drafting Committee and who took a leading part in bringing the deliberations to a rapid and successful issue. The Society is also most grateful to Professor Eastwood, who acted as legal advisor in the drawing up of the Bye-Laws and to Mr. Edwards, Secretary to the Royal Society of Medicine, who gave invaluable advice based on his great experience of the Royal Society of Medicine and on its Constitution.

The Committee feel that mention should be made of the legacy of £50 bequeathed to the Society by the late Dr. A. Gregory. It is proposed to use it in obtaining a reading desk for the Society's meetings. As in former years, the Committee has again to thank Mrs. Morley and the Ladies' Sub-Committee for providing tea, thereby greatly adding to the sociability of the meetings and perhaps too to the size of the meetings.

For many years the Society has enjoyed the capable and devoted assistance of their Librarian, Mr. G. Wilson. Quite apart from his duties as Librarian he and his staff have given unstinted help with the clerical work and without him the administrative side of the Society's business could scarcely have been carried out. The committee feel sure that members would like them to express their appreciation of their services.

Report of the Library Sub-Committee for 1948-49.

There has been a steady increase in the use of the Library and in the borrowing of books and periodicals during the year. Bigger grants from the University have enabled more books to be purchased and more periodicals taken. Re-arrangement of the bound journals in the Members' Reading Room has enabled those more frequently required for reference to be placed on accessible shelves.

Gifts have been received from several members of the Society, notably collections of books from the late Daniel Dougal and Robert Ollerenshaw. Members are asked to present to the Library any old books, pictures, out-of-date textbooks (in good condition) or back numbers of journals for which they no longer have need. It is sad to have to record a growing loss of books removed from the Library without signature and not returned. This is the more regrettable as it is not always possible to replace the loss.

The policy of showing the Library's books and other property in the show cases continues to be a popular feature of the Library. A special exhibition was arranged on the occasion of the North Region Clinical Meeting of the British Medical Students' Association.

During the year, the Cataloguer left to take up a more important post. The vacancy was filled by the promotion of the Assistant Cataloguer, Mrs. Parkinson. A new assistant has been appointed. The sub-Committee wishes to place on record its great appreciation of the work of the Librarian and his staff during the year.
