* Certain Free and Assisted Beds have been founded for specially necessitous cases. Applications for vacancies in these must be accompanied by full particulars of the circumstances of the family; and it must be borne in mind that the Committee only occasionally have these Beds at their disposal.

For the Year ending December 31st, 1919.

Changes during the year have been more numerous than usual owing to the recovery of many patients who had been under treatment for a considerable time. Some of those discharged were, on admission, considered to be quite hopeless cases, and but for the prolonged treatment which this Institution affords, would probably have been absolutely incurable.

Light cases of infection occurred during the year at both Hospitals, but fortunately these outbreaks did not spread.

Education.

Good results continue to attend the work carried on in the Classes. The manual work to which special attention is given, greatly interests the children, and is very valuable in teaching them occupations which may be of use in after life. The Board of Education Inspectors expressed their satisfaction with the year's progress.

Cots.

The Committee greatly regret to report the death of Mrs. St. Clair MacLeay, who had been a supporter of the Hospital since 1899, and by whom the "Alan MacLeay" Cot was maintained.

The "St. Nicholas" Cot League has most generously established another "Free Payment" Cot at St. Nicholas Hospital, to be called the "St. Thomas" Cot. The Committee thank the League most warmly for this increased help. The interest taken by the members greatly encourages those who work there.

Reference to this League will be found on page 63.

Miss Peirse-Duncombe has most kindly contributed £250 for the purpose of naming a Cot, in perpetuity (to be called "The Winifred Slingsby" Cot), in memory of her sister Mrs. J. G. Eustace, who for a long time regularly visited the children and took a most sympathetic interest in them, and by whom she was greatly beloved.

Notice was received during the year of a Legacy of £1,000 bequeathed by the late Miss Fairfax for the endowment of a "Free" Cot to be named "The Amy Fairfax" Cot. This amount has since been paid.

This Cot will keep in remembrance the keen interest which Miss Fairfax took in the Hospital. She, together with her late mother and her surviving sister have constantly visited the patients for many years, and have interested many of their own friends in the work carried on here, and have also annually collected and given a large number of articles of clothing for the children, and have made many other gifts. The Committee are greatly indebted to them for all their valued help and wish to record their deep regret at losing so sincere a friend. Miss Fairfax and her sister, in 1913, endowed "The Anne Fairfax" Cot in memory of their mother.

Very sincere thanks are tendered to all those who have continued their Subscriptions to various Cots.

Cottage Homes.

More children than for some years past have been sent to Cottage Homes before their final discharge. The expense of their support is defrayed by the Samaritan Fund, which in a comparatively short time will be exhausted. It would be a pity to discontinue the practice adopted, as the children greatly benefit by a stay in these cottages, under supervision, before returning to their homes, and therefore any contributions made to this Fund will be of the greatest value.

Finance.

His Majesty The King has again graciously sent a gift of £5 as a Special Christmas Donation.

H.R.H. The Prince of Wales has also kindly sent a gift of £5 as a Special Christmas Donation.

The following contributions, amongst others, are gratefully acknowledged :—

Receipts.

It is greatly to be regretted that, owing to deaths, withdrawals and reductions, the Annual Subscriptions have fallen off considerably.

The total of the Grants received from the three Hospital Funds has increased, and the Committee tender to the Councils of these Funds their very sincere thanks for the great help rendered, and especially to the King Edward's Fund for an extra grant of £50 "in reduction of the General Fund Debt."

The Anonymous Special Donation of £500 from "A Friend" has been most welcome and encouraging, as without it there was a prospect of a very serious deficit.

Legacies.

Legacies amounting to £1,150 have been received, as recorded in the year's accounts. Special thanks are tendered to the Public Trustee for having allotted to this Hospital the sum of £100 out of the funds left by the late Mrs. L. Block for distribution at his discretion among Charities.

It is only by the help of these Legacies that the Committee have been enabled to meet the largely increased expenditure of the year.

Expenditure.

Every effort has been exerted to keep down expenditure, and Cheyne Hospital continues to be amongst the most economically managed of its class in the country, but it has of course, been impossible to prevent a large increase. The cost of everything has again risen, and in respect of coal and milk the increase in prices has been very serious. It has also been necessary to incur the cost of painting at both Hospitals, in order to prevent the risk of serious depreciation. Salaries and wages have also advanced considerably.

General.

Our President, H.M. Queen Alexandra, accompanied by H.R.H. Princess Victoria, H.M. Queen Maud of Norway and Prince Olav, again visited the Hospital on the 3rd January.

The Committee of Management has been strengthened by the admission of Mrs. Lionel Banon, who for many years has taken great interest in the Hospital, having formerly supported "The Mary McIlwraith" Cot.

Mr. C. J. Conway has been elected a Governor of the Hospital as one of the executors of the late Mr. Asher Wertheimer.

It was with very great regret that the resignation of Dr. Rigden, owing to withdrawal from practice, was received.

Dr. Rigden held the post of Anæsthetist for thirty years. The Committee tender to him their heartiest thanks for his long and valuable services. Dr. Briscoe Owen has been appointed as his successor.

Mr. Jenkins, who recently succeeded the late Mr. Crane as Dispenser, has also resigned, owing to ill-health, and has been succeeded by Miss Wheeler.

A Harvest Festival was held on the 3rd October, at which the Rev. C. S. Woodward, M.A., of St. Peter's, Cranley Gardens, officiated. All present greatly appreciated his address to the children. The Committee ask him to accept their sincere thanks for his help.

References are made on page 7 to the Working Guilds.

Whilst the Committee are very thankful that the Special Gifts and Legacies referred to above have enabled them to meet the year's expenses without a loss, they feel very anxious about the future, as there is no prospect of an early reduction in the prices of commodities, and no reliance can be placed on the receipt of Legacies as a regular source of income.

They therefore hope that, as the demand for the support of War Charities diminishes, greater help will be forthcoming for Institutions such as this, where work is continuous. Many of the patients being treated here are children of those who laid down their lives or otherwise suffered for their country, and therefore have a special claim for support.

The Committee once more offer their thanks to the Staff of St. Luke's Church, Chelsea, and the Rev. H. E. Trimmer, of St. Nicholas, for their valued services during the year.

Committee.

The following members of the Committee of Management, viz.:—Lady Monkswell, Reginald Blunt, Esq., and Mrs. Geiger, retire at the Annual Meeting, in order of the seniority of their appointment and are eligible for re-election.

Signed on behalf of the Committee of Management,

E. M. WILSON, Lt.-Col., Chairman.

ELIZABETH WESTON FLOWER.

THOUGH MRS. FLOWER'S death did not occur in the year to which this Report refers, it is felt that it should not go out without some reference to the loss of the Foundress of the Hospital, and its oldest and staunchest friend.

The Cheyne Hospital was founded by Mr. and Mrs. Wickham Flower alone in 1875, and began its work with four cots at the fine old riverside house No. 46 Cheyne Walk.

They had seen the pitiable plight of these poor children suffering from deep-seated disease of hip or spine or joint; cases needing constant dressings and attention, and particularly unsuitable for home treatment, even in the few cases where any proper home treatment was possible: often grievously neglected; often suffering cruelly and unnecessarily; always a source of injury to the healthier members of the family in small ill-ventilated rooms. Then they had seen such children bandied to and fro from hospital to hospital, from operation to operation, till they were sent back to their unwelcoming homes, not because they were cured, or could perhaps be cured, but because they could not be kept, when every bed was needed for the acute cases awaiting admission.

Of this misery, Mr. and Mrs. Flower saw that part at least was remediable. Actual pain and suffering could always be greatly alleviated by proper nursing; and a place could be made where these children of sorrow could be brought, and could remain; remain for an indefinite period, for years if need be, till death released them, or till prolonged continuous nursing and treatment gave the chance of permanent cure. The gain promised by such an institution would be a triple one; relief to the overcrowded General Hospitals; relief to the cramped home and the overworked mother; relief unspeakable to the suffering child itself.

It was a great opportunity, and they determined to take it.

In the following year, 1876, the adjoining house in Cheyne Walk, No. 47, was acquired in order to enlarge the little hospital; and Mr. and Mrs. Flower then formed a small committee of five, the Rev. Gerald Blunt, Major Cavendish FitzRoy and Mr. Bertram Mitford (afterwards Lord Redesdale) joining them in its management.

The quiet work thus started continued here, with many vicissitudes, for the next 12 years: but by 1886 it had become imperative that larger and more suitable premises must be provided if the nursing was to be carried on under the best possible conditions; and the generous response which had been made, during these years, to the personal appeals of the Founders enabled the Committee in 1886 to purchase the freehold of the three old houses just west of the corner of Lawrence Street, and to proceed with the careful planning of the present Hospital, which was built on their site, and completed in 1889, its fifty beds being all occupied before the end of that year.

The devoted personal attachment of its Founders remained constant to the very end of their lives. Mr. Flower died in 1904, and bequeathed to the Hospital property which has realised over £30,000; and this bequest enabled the Committee to found the very valuable branch Institution at The Grange, St. Nicholas-at-Wade, in the Isle of Thanet; which was acquired in 1908, altered and added to in the following year, and opened in 1910. Here a further 30 children are accommodated; and the healing virtue of the fine sea winds of Thanet has led the Committee to devote the St. Nicholas Hospital almost exclusively to the open-air treatment of tuberculous cases, which are taken there for an indefinite period, and with most encouraging results.

Mrs. Flower's affectionate concern for Cheyne Hospital and all that touched its efficiency and welfare were strong and unflinching to the very last. She had always set her face steadfastly against the Hospital getting into debt, or the Committee incurring heavy liabilities which it had no actual means of liquidating. The appeal of the big Debt, and the threatened curtailment of work which there are insufficient funds to carry on, is always powerful, and may, of course, be justifiable or inevitable; but Cheyne Hospital—and largely through Mrs. Flower's influence—always forswore this appeal; and though it may have thus renounced a forceful lever with the charitable, the policy has been justified and—again largely through Mrs. Flower's exertions—has, on the whole, carried its own reward.

In 1918, when Mrs. Flower's health made her regular attendance at Committees difficult, she insisted on her resignation, which she had tendered more than once, taking effect; but consented to become Vice-President of the Hospital, and to come when she could. Indeed her visits were continued when she ought not to have been out; and the last was to be present at the Children's Christmas Day Dinner, which she has not missed, I think, since the very beginning of the Hospital. It was delightful to have her there once more at the carving of the turkeys she had given; but no one who was there can have hoped to see her again, so frail and shaken did she seem; so pluckily cheery, yet so obviously failing. A few days afterwards she became seriously ill, and died on January 20th of this year.

Mrs. Flower had many interests in life and art and things beautiful; but I believe that "The Little Hospital by the River," as Lady Ritchie had christened it in the early days, was always the foremost of her interests. To her it largely owed its existence and its special character. Her taste governed its simple decoration; her restraint vetoed all extravagance of appeal; her sound judgment overcame obstacles and composed differences. Its anxieties, its difficulties, its welfare were hers, and their surmounting or achievement her very first and most insistent concern.

Its friends were her friends; and its staff, both past and present, have had constant proof of her thoughtful loyalty and helpfulness.

Life did not spare her sorrow, nor illness and infirmity; but at least at the end, it is consolation to feel that there remains, for her fitting memorial, a noble institution quietly carrying on the beneficent work which she inaugurated: something real accomplished; something that was good, and is worth while.

THE "ST. NICHOLAS COT" LEAGUE.

THE "St. Nicholas Cot" League was formed in 1916, with the object of endowing a Free Cot at St. Nicholas Hospital for the treatment of sick children taken from the neighbourhood, and during the year the following ladies have acted as a Committee:—Mrs. Toynbee (Chairman), The Matron, Mrs. Buss, Miss Chapman, Mrs. Hilton-Johnson, Miss Laurie, Mrs. Murphy, Miss Penn, Mrs. Ramsay and Mrs. S. Champion (Secretary).

A sum amounting to £83 16s. 6d. has been raised, including £33 13s. 8d., proceeds of a Tennis Tournament arranged by Miss Penn.

The occupant of the Cot gained sufficient strength to warrant his discharge to his home, and the Cot is now filled by Violet Cork, a child from Canterbury.

There being a considerable sum in hand, with every prospect of substantial future support, the Committee decided to subscribe for a second Free Cot to be called The "St. Thomas" Cot, and this has been arranged, and the subscription of £40 for the coming year has been paid over to the Hospital.

The Committee gratefully thank all those who have contributed to the Fund and trust that they may rely upon them to renew their support and to interest others in the League.
