CONDITIONS OF SALE.

- I. The highest Bidder to be the Buyer; and if any Dispute arise between Bidders, the Lot so disputed shall be immediately put up again, provided the seller cannot decide the said dispute.
- II. No Person to advance less than 6d.; above Ten Shillings, 1s.; above Five Pounds, 2s. 6d.; and so on.
- III. The Purchasers to give in their Names and Places of Abode, and to pay down 5s. in the Pound, if required, in Part of Payment of the Purchase-money; in default of which, the Lot or Lots purchased to be immediately put up again and re-sold.
- IV. The Lots to be taken away, at the Buyer's Expence, immediately after the conclusion of the Sale; in default of which Messrs. Sotheby and Co. will not hold themselves responsible if lost, stolen, damaged, or otherwise destroyed, but they will be left at the sole risk of the Purchaser. If, at the expiration of ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the Sale, the Books or other property are not cleared or paid for, they will then be catalogued for immediate sale, and the expence, the same as if re-sold, will be added to the amount at which the books were bought. S. LEIGH SOTHEBY AND Co. will have the option of re-selling the Lots uncleared either by public or private sale, without any notice being given to the defaulter.
- V. The Books are presumed to be perfect, unless otherwise expressed; but, if upon collating, any should prove defective, the Purchaser will be at liberty to take or reject them, provided they are returned within ONE WEEK after the conclusion of the Sale, when the Purchase-Money will be returned.
- VI. The Sale of any Book or Books is not to be set aside on account of any Stained or Short Leaves of Text or Plates, want of List of Plates, or on account of the Publication of any subsequent Volume, Supplement, Appendix, or Plates. All the Manuscripts, all Magazines and Reviews, all Books in Lots, and all Tracts in Lots or Volumes, will be sold with all Faults, Imperfections, and Errors of Description. The sale of any lot of Prints or Drawings is not to be set aside on account of any error in the enumeration of the numbers stated, or errors of Description.
- VII. No IMPERFECT BOOKS will be taken back, unless a note accompanies each Book, stating its Imperfections, with the Number of Lot and date of the Sale at which the same was purchased.
- VIII. To prevent inaccuracy in delivery, and inconvenience in the settlement of the purchases, no Lot can on any account be removed during the time of Sale.
- IX. Upon Failure of complying with the above Conditions, the Money required and deposited in Part of Payment shall be forfeited; and if any loss is sustained in the re-selling of such books as are not cleared or paid for, all charges on such Re-sale shall be made good by the Defaulters at this Sale.

Gentlemen who cannot attend the Sale may have their Commissions faithfully executed by their humble Servants,

S. LEIGH SOTHEBY & JOHN WILKINSON, Wellington Street, Strand.

* * This RARE volume belonged to the FAMILY OF THE IRELANDS for many years, as appears from the numerous curious MS. notes which occur in many parts of it, and bear dates from 1546 to 1616. Among others is a long one dated the XIIIth of —, 1578, relative to a quarrel which happened on that day while her Majesty [Queen Elizabeth] was at dinner, between Henry Burrowes, the son and heir to Lady Burrowes and Thos. Holcroft, gentleman, who, leaving the Court, went immediately to a retired spot and fought a duel. H. B. being run through the heart by his adversary's rapier, he, T. H., was taken on the spot, and examined before the Nobles, &c. the dining with her Majesty, among whom was the relator, JOHN IRELAND GROOME [of the Chamber], Sir F. Knowles, Sir Chr. Hatton, &c. &c.

  THIS EXQUISITELY BEAUTIFUL MANUSCRIPT UPON VELLUM EXHIBITS A SPECIMEN OF HIGH FLEMISH ART.
 It consists of 738 pages, and is adorned with ONE HUNDRED AND FORTY SIX MINIATURE PAINTINGS, considered to be

THE WORK OF THE INIMITABLE HEMMELINCK.

Of these miniatures 105 occupy 35 pages, three in each page, alternately, one a prominent subject from Biblical History, with two smaller ones, and then three smaller ones on the page opposite. These pages are all ornamented with arabesque borders sprinkled over with birds and flowers, most charmingly designed.

Isabella The volume opens with two miniature paintings, the one representing PHILIP THE FAIR, and the other his wife, JULIANA, Daughter of Ferdinand, King of Spain. Philip is represented in a full suit of armour, and may be considered a faithful portrait. By his side are the united arms of Austria and Burgundy, and on a cushion at the feet of the latter are the arms of Castile and Arragon, the escutcheon used by her as Queen of Spain.

A Manuscript note which accompanies this volume states, "The Flemish Painter, Hemmelinck, has been recognised under the features of the kneeling Magi."

A. Bohn

A SPLENDID MANUSCRIPT OF THE COMMENCEMENT OF THE XVI CENTURY, UPON VELLUM, DISPLAYING AN EXTRAORDINARY AND GORGEOUS SPECIMEN OF FRENCH ART OF THAT PERIOD. It is written on 450 pages in a clear and bold hand, ADORNED WITH ONE HUNDRED AND NINETY-ONE MINIATURE PAINTINGS, the pages on which they occur having a border of flowers upon gold, intermixed with ornaments on a dark ground.

Following the text of each Psalm is a brief exposition in the French language. The pictorial illustrations which accompany them are admirably designed; and, from the infinity of variety displayed, render the volume of more than the ordinary interest of those which are usually found in the Missals of that period.

The volume opens with an introductory vigil, the illumination thereto representing the KING OF FRANCE, accompanied by a Bishop, as in the act of adoration before the Psalmist.

 SUPERB MANUSCRIPT UPON VELLUM, EXECUTED FOR FRANCIS THE FIRST, KING OF FRANCE. It is beautifully written in double columns, occupying four hundred pages, and ADORNED WITH ABOVE ONE HUNDRED MINIATURE PAINTINGS, which for freshness and brilliancy of colouring, minuteness of detail, and singularity in design, are seldom surpassed.

It was so

729 at Goldsmid's sale in 1815 and

bought by North

for £120. - at

North's sale it was bought by

Esdaile for £98.14.

The first painting represents the author presenting his manuscript to the king, who is surrounded by his courtiers.
Opposite are the arms of France. The dedication to the king is signed "Votre tres humble et tres obeissant subject et serviteur, GIRARD ACARCE."

This Manuscript has ever been esteemed one of the most beautiful of this celebrated Romance. It is particularly noticed by the Rev. Dr. Dibdin in the Bibliographical Decameron, vol. 1, p. ccxiv, where the frontispiece is engraved.

1373 BIBLIA SACRA LATINI VERSIONIS SANCTI HIERONYMI

A MAGNIFICENT MANUSCRIPT OF THE TWELFTH CENTURY, UPON VELLUM, WITH CURIOUS ILLUMINATIONS AND LARGE AND ELEGANT INITIAL LETTERS, 2 vol. large fol. size of the vellum pages, 18½ inches by 13

155. —

VOLUME 1 commences with the Canon on twenty-two leaves. This consists of five chronological tables, in parallel columns, viz. the year of the world, the year of Christ, the astronomical calendar, the Paschal terms, and Easter Sunday; and on the outer margin is written a chronicle of remarkable events, which has been continued by later hands to the fourteenth century. After the Canon follows a table of consanguinity, and a Scripture Genealogy and Chronology, occupying nine leaves, which, as well as the Canon, are all neatly drawn and coloured.

Rodd.

Prefacio bibliothecæ exametris versibus composita, occupies two pages, after which commences the Epistle of S. Jerome, with a grand illuminated capital, ten inches long. Each book has a large floreated capital at the beginning, and is preceded by a table of the contents.

VOLUME 2 commences with the book of Job, and after the Prologue of S. Jerome follow two grand illuminated pages, the full size of the volume. The first is divided into compartments representing the sons and daughters of Job feasting; allegorical figures of the seven gifts of the Holy Spirit; Job in misery, and other subjects; the whole surrounded by inscriptions. The opposite page is also divided into compartments, representing in the upper, the Saviour, with the inscription hic est filius meus dilectus; in the lower, Christ washing the Feet of his Disciples, and the Last Supper.

On the reverse of the leaf the book commences, the word VIR being in splendid illuminated capitals, eight inches in length, and occupying half the page.

THE PSALMS PRESENT THREE LATIN VERSIONS, viz. the Gallic, the Roman, and the Hebrew, in three parallel columns.

The four Evangelists have a fine illumination at the commencement of each.

THESE TRULY NOBLE VOLUMES PRESENT THE FINEST SPECIMEN OF A BIBLICAL MANUSCRIPT THAT HAS OCCURRED FOR PUBLIC COMPETITION since the Sale of the celebrated Bible said to have been executed by Alcuin for the Emperor Charlemagne, and would prove
