

M0002408: Letter from Florence Nightingale to the Probationer Nurses at St. Thomas' Hospital, 1883

Publication/Creation

23 October 1931

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/cty3qa7d>

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

or more or showy: but alert, silent, steady in discipline
And not a man of them as I am sure, but thought he had nothing to be proud of in what he had done, tho' we might well be proud of them

Now, we don't say: Volunteers take example by this. Alas!
we will be their true Comrades in faithfulness to Reality & duty. It is the same spirit: the spirit of the nation. Let us stick to it. The great Duke of Wellington said:
'all for duty, & nothing for reward.'