OLD MEDICAL BOOKS.

1. AB ALTOMARI, Donatus Antonius. Opuscula. Acc. de sanitatis latitudine tractatus. 4 and 120 leaves. With numerous pretty woodcut initials. Printer's device. 4to. Modern vellum. Venice, Marcus de Maria, 1561. Lit. 90.—

Altomare was a celebrated physician at Naples (1550). Contains: De utero gerentibus, de sedimento in urinis, de digestionem, de purgationem, de concoctionem, etc.—Upper margins slightly waterstained, but fine copy with wide margins.

ABANO, Peter of, see nr. 259.

2. ABDEKER, ou l'art de conserver la beauté. Two parts. 2 leaves, 122 pp., 1 leaf, 46, 128 and 34 pp. With vignette on the title. 8vo. Old calf, back gilt. (Paris?), 1754. Lit. 45.—

Deals with cosmetics. Interesting numerous receipts.

3. ACTUARIUS, Joannes. De urinis libri septem. Ambrosio Nolanus interprete. Antonius Thylesius Cosentinus. De coloribus liber. Paulus Aegineta. De crisi ac diebus decretoriis et eorum signis fragmentum. Andr. Lemnii epistola de urinae studio. 8 leaves, 443 pp. Printer's device. 8vo. Old limp vellum. Basle, Cratander, 1563. Lit. 100.—

Actuarius was about 1280 physician at the Byzantine court. Famous work on uroscopy. This edition is augmented by two treatises of Paulus of Aegina and Lemnius.—Few tiny wormholes. Old owners name on title cancelled.

4. ADELPHUS, Eusebius. Ereunia polusplagne oder gründliche Erläuterung dieser neuer Krankheit oder ansteckende Seuche womit der arceus oder Lebens Geist in eine ganztliche Exorbitanz gebracht wird. 4 leaves, 39 pp. Small 8vo. Vellum. Without printer's place, 1684. Lit. 45.—

Treats venereal diseases, rabies and plague, also in relation to astrology.

5. AETIUS OF AMIDA. Contractae ex veteribus medicinae tetrabiblos. Per Janum Cornarium latine conscripti. 6 leaves, 916 pp., 28 leaves. Printer's device (repeated). Folio. Boards (back wanting). Basel, Froben, 1549. Lit. 200.—

Early complete Latin edition of Aetius' work usually called the Tetrabiblion, which is one of the chief authorities we know of the work of Rufus of Ephesus and Leonides on surgery, and of Soranus and Philumenus on gynecology and obstetrics. It was published for the first time in Venice (only the Greek text). The Greek text of most of the last eight of these 16 books is still unprinted. Cornarius' translation of Aetius is still the best. Aetius' work contains the best account of diseases of the eye, ear, nose, throat and teeth in ancient literature. In surgery, he supplies many of the last passages in Oribasius and describes modes of procedure (tonsillotomy, urethrotomy, etc.), which are not to be found anywhere else. Choulant p. 134: Vollständige und neue Uebersetzung von J. Cornarius allein. — Beautifully printed by Froben. Somewhat browned as usual, but good, large copy.

6. AETIUS. Contractae ex veteribus medicinae sermones XVI per Janum Cornarium latine conscripti. 92 leaves, 469 leaves, 1 leaf. Printer's device (repeated). Thick 8vo. Old limp vellum. Venice, Gryphius, 1549. Lit. 75.—

8vo edition. This copy contains only vol. 1 (the first eight books); the second volume was published separately.

7. ALBERTUS MAGNUS. De secretis mulierum. De virtutibus herbarum, lapidum et animalium. Michaelis Scotus. De secretis naturae. 358 pp., 7 leaves. With nice engraved title. 16mo. Old calf, back gilt. Amsterdam, Jansson, 1648. Lit. 75.—

8. ALBERTUS MAGNUS. (In Italian). Alberto Magno diviso in tre libri. Nel primo si tratta delle virtù dell'erbe. Nel secondo delle virtù delle pietre. Nel terzo delle virtù degli animali. 70 pp. Small 8vo. Wrappers. Venice, not dated (but XVIIth century). Lit. 40.—

9. ALBERT MODERNE (Alletz, P. A.), ou nouveaux secrets éprouvés et licites. 12 leaves, 358 pp., 1 leaf. 8vo. Old calf. Paris, 1772. Lit. 36.—

Contains a full-account of remedies and treats especially cosmetics. « Mal de dents, pommade pour blanchir le teint, petite vérole, maladies des yeux, pour teindre les cheveux, morsures de cousins, contre les dents gâtés, etc. ».

10. ALESSIO Piemontese. De secretis libri sex. Per Jo. Weckerum. 342 leaves (badly numbered), 11 leaves. Printer's device. 16mo. Boards. Lyons, Rovillius, 1561. Lit. 90.—

Early Latin edition of this work which is a storehouse of very curious chemical and medical recipes. « Alessio parcourut pendant 57 années les différentes contrées de l'Europe, recueillant des recettes précieuses. Son livre ne traite pas seulement des drogues mais des cosmétiques, des parfums, des savons, etc. Il raconte qu'au moyen d'une drogue préparée avec de la rosée du romarin et quelques autres ingrédients il était parvenu à rajeunir de vieilles femmes infirmes » (Biogr. Gén.). — Title soiled; a few leaves waterstained.

11. ALEXANDRINUS, Julius. Galenī enantiomaton aliquot liber. Eiusdem Galenī encomium. Greek and Latin text. 8 and 171 leaves, 1 leaf. With woodcut initials and printer's device. 8vo. Boards. Venice, Giunta, 1548. Lit. 75.—

Some slight waterstains.

12. ALPINUS, Prosperus. De balsamo dialogus in quo balsami plantae, opobalsami, carpobalsami et xilobalsami cognitio elucescit. 6 and 26 leaves, 1 leaf. With two woodcuts (plants). Small 4to. Wrappers. Venice, 1591. Lit. 125.—

First edition. Pritzel 114. Early special treatise on balsam-plants. According to Sprengel the balsam here principally dealt with is the species Amyris, which Bartholinus is said to have seen in Alpinus' garden at Padua. The present book started a rather extensive literature on the subject which was discussed throughout the 17th century.—Slight ink-stains on outer margins, but good copy.

13. ALPINUS, Prosperus. De praesagienda vita et morte aegrotantium libri septem. Cum praefatione H. Boerhave. 7, 163 and 16 leaves. With portrait. 4to. Old calf. Venice, 1735. Lit. 25.—

Celebrated work on medical prognosis.

14. ANDRY, Nicolaus. Recherches sur la rage. 8vo. Calf. Paris, 1780. Lit. 18.—

15. ANTIDOTARIUM Bononiense a collegio medicorum restitutum. 6 leaves, 484 pp. With nice vignette on the title showing in the back-ground Bologna. Large 4to. Half vellum. Bologna, 1750. Lit. 45.—

Gives a good survey on the Italian pharmacology of those days. At the end a pharmaceutical manuscript of 24 leaves, written by a contemporary hand.

16. ANTIDOTARIUM Bononiense. 4 leaves, 570 pp., 1 leaf. 4to. Original boards. Venice, 1766. Lit. 35.—

17. ANTIDOTARIUM Romanum, seu modus componendi medicamenta quae sunt in usu. 12 and 130 leaves. 18mo. Half calf. Venice, 1590. Lit. 70.—

Early edition of the Roman «Antidotarium».—Very small portion of the title gone.

18. ANTIDOTARIUM Romanum collegii Archiattrorum Romanorum auctoritate recognitum. 6 leaves, 256 pp., 9 leaves. 12mo. Old vellum. Rome, 1638. Lit. 50.—

19. APULEIUS PLATONICUS (BARBARUS?). De medicaminibus herbarum. Brassavola, Antonius Musa. De herba vetonica. Per Gabrielem Humelbergium recogniti et emendati. Many Greek letters. 4 leaves, 303 pp., 14 leaves. With charming small woodcut initials and printer's device. Small 4to. Boards. (Zürich, Froschauer, 1537). Lit. 250.—

Brunet I, 369. Apparently second, very rare edition (first edition Rome, 1483) of the famous herbarium.

«This herbarium has an important place in the history of botany and medicine because of its age and also because in the course of its career it served as the gathering point for the interpolation of additional knowledge» (Klebs). This work is certainly erroneously ascribed to the author of the Golden Ass, Lucius Apuleius. It is next to the famous codex of Dioscorides one of the earliest works on medical botany.—Both works (also that of Brassavola on the «Herba Vetonica») are commented by Hummelberg.—First leaves waterstained, old owner's name on title.

20. ARGENTERIUS (Argentieri), Joannes. De consultationibus medicis sive de collegiandi ratione liber. 190 pp., 1 leaf. With arms on title. 8vo. Old limp vellum. Florence, Torrentinus, 1551. Lit. 95.—

First edition, finely printed by Torrentinus' famous Florentine press.—Fine, spotless copy.

21. ARGENTERIUS, J. De somno et vigilia in quibus continentur duae tractationes de calido nativo et de spiritibus. 4 leaves, 336 pp., 6 leaves. With woodcut border around the title, and pretty initials. 4to. Half calf. Florence, Torrentinus, 1556. Lit. 110.—

«Quid somnum faciat, et quo modo ex Galeno; Somni causae effectrices quae verae putantur; Quid sit calidum innatum; De fontibus caloris, etc.»—Good specimen from Torrentinus' famous Florentine press.

22. ARISTOTELES-PORTIUS. Aristotelis, vel Theophrasti de coloribus libellus, a Simone Portio Neapolitano, cum eiusd. praefatione, qua coloris naturam declarat. 102 leaves. Greek and Latin text. 8vo. Boards. Paris, Vascosanus, 1549. Lit. 60.—
Brunet I, 475. Nice copy.
23. ARISTOTELES. Problematum sectiones 38. Quaestiones mechanicae, de miraculis naturae, physionomica, de lineis insectabilibus et alia. Ad. Alexandri Aphrodysaei problematum libri. 728 pp. 16mo. Vellum. Venice, 1585. Lit. 40.—
Somewhat waterstained and worn.
24. (ARNAUD, G.) Beautifying pomatum and vinegar of the Four Thieves, unconcealed remedies. English and French text. 11 leaves. Unbound. (London, 1770). Lit. 35.—
This little treatise deals entirely with cosmetics.
25. ASSALINI. Essai médical sur les vaisseaux lymphatiques avec le moyen de prévenir les effets des substances venimeuses comme la salive du chien enragé, etc. 2 leaves, 156 pp., 4 leaves. 8vo. Wrappers. Turin, 1787. Lit. 50.—
Treats lymphatics and glands. We mention: Des vaisseaux lactés, des glandes lymphatiques, de l'absorbition du chyle, etc.
26. ASTRUC, J. Tractatus de morbis mulierum. Acc. catalogus Chronologicus medicorum, quorum scripta de iis morbis extant. Ars obstetricia ad Sua principia redacta. 2 vols. 12 leaves, 388 pp., 4 leaves, 212 pp., 4 leaves, 96 pp. With two engraved plates. 4to. Original boards. Venice, 1763-67. Lit. 90.—
First Latin edition of this well-known and explicit monograph on the diseases of women. The chronological catalogue of gynecological writers from the earliest time up to Astruc's own time comprises 60 pp. and is full of bibliographical details.
27. ASTRUC, J. Traité des tumeurs et des ulcères avec deux lettres.... the second against venereal diseases. 2 vols. 8vo. Old marbled calf. Paris, 1759. Lit. 40.—
Deals with inflammation and syphilis.
28. ASTRUC, J. L'art d'accoucher. 72 and 308 pp. 8vo. Wrappers. Paris, 1771. Lit. 35.—
Partly uncut margins.
29. AUDA DI LANTOSCA, Domenico. Breve compendio di maravigliosi secreti diviso in quattro libri. I. De' secreti medicinali. II. De' secreti appartenenti a diverse cose. III. De' secreti chimici di varie fonti. IIII. D'astrologia medicinale. Con un trattato per conservarsi in sanità. 12 leaves, 276 pp., 1 leaf. 8vo. Vellum. Rome, 1652. Lit. 70.—
First edition of this Italian work which treats with alchemy, chemistry, hermetic medicine and especially with cosmetics and run through many editions.—Somewhat brownstained.
30. AUGUSTINUS DE ANCONA. Opusculum de cognitione animae et eius potentiis cum quadam questione Prosperi de Regio. 52 leaves. Preface printed in Roman, text in black letter. With woodcut showing a mnemotechnical cut of a head. 4to. Modern boards. Bologna, Jacobus de Benedictis, 1503. Lit. 180.—
This interesting treatise on mnemotechnics seems to be unrecorded. It is based principally upon Avicenna and treats also the powers of senses, imagination and phantasy.—Fine, spotless copy.

31. AVICENNA. Libri in re medica omnes. Id est: Libri canonis quinque. De viribus cordis. De removendis nocumentis in regimine sanitatis. De syrupo acetoso. Et Cantica. A J. P. Mongio et J. Costaeo recognita. Two vols. I. 4 leaves, 966 pp., 1 leaf; II. 6 leaves, 429 pp., index. With woodcut initials and printer's device (repeated). Folio. Old calf. Venice, Valgrisius, 1564. Lit. 225.—

Fine copy of this good edition of Avicenna's works with the commentary of Costaeus.

32. BAGLIVI, G. Opera omnia medico-practica et anatomica. Acc. Baglivi vita. 32 pp. and 450 pp. With portrait of the author and three engraved plates. 4to. Boards. Venice, 1754. Lit. 25.—

Baglivi, a pupil of Malpighi, was a highly successful physician and one of the founders of the Jatrochemical school.

33. BAILLOU, Guillaume (Ballonius). Consiliorum medicinalium libri duo. Two parts. I. 34 pp., 593 pp., II. 14 leaves, 319 pp. With the engraved portrait of the author. 4to. Old calf (worn). Paris, 1635. Lit. 50.—

Baillou (1536-1614) is regarded as the first epidemiologist of modern times. His works were all published after his death. First edition.—Very browned and partly very wormholed.

34. BAILLOU, G. - SEPTALIUS, L. Labyrinthei medici extricati, sive methodus vitandorum errorum qui in praxi occurrunt. Add. tractatus de naevis. 14 leaves, 733 pp., 22 leaves, 20 pp., 2 leaves. 4to. Old calf. Geneva, 1687. Lit. 45.—

The above work contains Baillou's interesting treatises on fever, circulation of blood, etc. At the end: Tractatus de naevis, by L. Septalius.

35. BAKER, Henry. Le microscope a la portée de tout le monde ou description, calcul et explication de la nature, de l'usage et de la force des meilleurs microscopes. 10 leaves, 356 pp. With 15 engraved folding plates. 8vo. Calf. Paris, 1754. Lit. 70.—

« Examination of salts and saline substances, account of various animalcules, never before described, with description of microscope used, etc. ». The author was the founder of the Bakerian lecture of the Royal Society.

36. BAKER, H. Het microscoop gemakkelyk gemaakt of beschryving van de beste en nieuwste microscoopen en van derzelve behandeling. 10 leaves, 300 pp., 8 leaves. With 14 engraved folding plates. Large 8vo. Half calf. Amsterdam, 1760. Lit. 65.—

Fine copy.

37. BALDINGER, E. G. Sylloge selectiorum opusculorum argumenti medico-practici. 6 vols. With vignette on title. 8vo. Old calf, gilt back. Göttingen, 1766-82. Lit. 55.—

Baldinger (1738-1804), was a celebrated biographer of his contemporaries and wrote many learned essays. This work is of particular interest for the study of medical history.

38. BALNEA. De balneis omnia quae extant apud Graecos, Latinos, et Arabos, tam medicos quam quoscunque ceterarum artium probatos scriptores qui vel integris libris vel quoquo alio modo hanc materiam tractaverunt. In quo aquarum ac thermarum omnium quae in toto fere orbe terrarum sunt, metallorum item reliquorum mineralium naturae, vires atque usus exquisitissime explicantur. 14 and 497 leaves. With five very fine and interesting full-page woodcuts (view of the watering-places of Plombières, the baths of Pozzuoli, the Adriatic coast from Aquileja to Triest, the antique baths, etc.), charming woodcut with children, many pretty initial letters and printer's device. Folio. 18th cent. calf, back gilt. Venice, Giunta, 1553. Lit. 550.—

Brunet I. 628: «Collection rare et recherchée». Choulant, 420-21. Unique edition of this most important collection of balneological works. It gives an extensive history of baths and bathing-methods of all periods and an exact description of all known watering-places (about 200). More than 70 authors have contributed to this collection, of which we mention the following: Avicenna, Averroes, Gesner, Savonarola, Hugo Senensis, Fuchs, etc. Remarkable also on account of the fine typographical execution.—Stain on margin of four leaves, but very fine copy.

39. BARBETTE, Paule. Opera chirurgica anatomica conformata al moto circolare del sangue et altre invenzioni de' più moderni. Agg. un trattato della peste. 8 leaves, 446 pp., 1 leaf. 8vo. Old vellum. Rome, 1682. Lit. 55.—

This work is principally based upon Harvey's discovery on the circulation of the blood.

40. BARTHOLINUS, Thomas. Historiarum anatomicarum rariorum centuria I et II. 8 leaves, 326 pp., 5 leaves. With engraved frontispice, 9 partly folding plates and a few cuts in the text, all relating to anatomy. 8vo. Old vellum. Copenhagen, 1654. Lit. 85.—

Contains hundreds of very interesting descriptions of anatomical discoveries. These Centuriae were all published separately.

41. BARTHOLINUS, Thomas. Anatomia ad sanguinis circulationem reformata. Add. Appendix de lacteis thoracicis et vasis lymphaticis. Walaeus. De motu chyli et sanguinis. 8 leaves, 594 pp., 7 leaves. With frontispice, the portrait of the author and many excellent partly folding engr. plates. Large 8vo. Vellum. Amsterdam, 1669. Lit. 110.—

This edition presented a distinct improvement over the earlier ones not only because of many changes brought about by the criticisms of others but especially because it contained the results of some of Bartholinus' own dissections, for example, the discovery of a new muscle. At the end two treatises by Jean de Wale (Walaeus) on the circulation of the blood. He gives in these treatises a convincing proof of Harvey's discovery according to the laws of hydrodynamics.—Part of one plate gone, but good copy.

42. BARTHOLINUS, Thomas. De luce animalium, libri tres. 6 leaves, 396 pp., 4 leaves. Printer's device. 8vo. Old calf, back gilt. Leyden, 1647. Lit. 65.—

Contains: Lux vera homini a perfectione eius assignatur; de pillis hominum lucentibus; de animae humanae luce; de lucis animantium essentia, de insectis volatilibus cum luce, de avibus lucentibus, etc.

43. BARTHOLINUS, Caspar. Specimen historiae anatomicae partium corporis humani, ad recentiorum mentem accomodatae novisque observationibus illustratae. 4 leaves, 188 pp., 2 leaves. With 4 copper plates. 4to. Old calf. Copenhagen, 1701. Lit. 90.—

First edition. Some of the chapters: De via alimentorum et chyli. De via sanguinis et respiratione. De variis in via sanguinis occurrentibus cribris, seu glandulis. De partibus conservationi speciei dicatis. De partibus sensui inservientibus, cerebro, nervis, etc. De ductu salivall. De lacteis. De nervis oculorum. De diaphragmatis structura.—Old marginal annotations. Somewhat waterstained.

44. (BASEILHAC, Jean.) Recueil de pieces importantes sur l'operation de la taille faite par le lithotome caché. 6 leaves, 258 pp., 3 leaves. 12mo. Half vellum. Paris, 1751. Lit. 50.—
Barbier IV, 77. Deals with lithotomy.
45. BECK, Beniamino. La bombardata e vinta Venere, con sei osservazioni per curare la lue venerea. Agg. un'appendice di cento segreti. 8 leaves, 103 pp., 1 leaf. With very charming frontispice bearing the author's portrait engraved in red, title printed in red and engraved plate in the text showing healing of syphilis. 8vo. Calf. Milan, 1743. Lit. 90.—
Proksch I, 33. This little treatise on syphilis is of special interest.
46. BECKHER, Daniel. Medicus microcosmus, seu spagyria microcosmi exhibens medicinam corpore hominis tum vivo, tum extincto docte eruendam et dextre propinandam. 16 leaves, 304 pp., 12 leaves. 12mo. Wrappers. London, 1660. Lit. 110.—
Caillet 900: «Très rare. Savant traité de médecine spagyrique basée sur l'emploi thérapeutique de toutes les parties du corps de l'homme, avec un grand nombre de références à l'appui: de l'emploi de la semence, des urines, des excréments, des cheveux, des ongles, de la salive, du crâne, etc..... L'auteur donne la recette d'un philtre magique très actif composé avec le sang, dont les effets sympathiques sont irrésistibles et on rapporte des exemples très émouvants. Beckher fournit en même temps un préservatif contre ce maléfice de manière à pouvoir en annuler l'effet, les cas échéant». Contains a great number of recipes.—Slightly brownstained on some leaves.
47. BEGUINUS, Johannes. Les elemens de chymie. 8 leaves, 384 pp., index. With vignette on title, and a few cuts in the text. 8vo. Vellum. Lyons, 1658. Lit. 110.—
«Ce manuel a joui à son époque d'une vogue universelle. Beguin mit, l'un des premiers en ordre les préceptes épars de la chymie». (Caillet). Contains: de la calcination, des eaux fortes, du vinaigre, des huiles, des sels, de la quint'essence du vin, etc.—Title slightly soiled; somewhat brownstained.
48. BELLINI, Lorenzo. Opera omnia. Ad. nonnullis dissertationibus. Three parts. 13 leaves, 448 pp., 2 leaves, 253 pp., 1 leaf. 74 pp. With several full-page engravings in the text. 4to. Old vellum. Venice, 1747. Lit. 100.—
Bellini (1643-1703), was professor of philosophy at Pisa, until the Grand Duke Ferdinand created a chair of anatomy for him. The tubes in the kidney which bear his name were first seen by him in a deer sent to his master Borelli for dissection. Contains a detailed treatise on the circulation of the blood (100 pp.).
49. BELLINI, L. Exercitatio anatomica de structura et usu renum cui renum monstrosorum exempla addidit G. Blasius. 132 pp. With 11 full page plates. Printer's device. 12mo. Calf. Amsterdam, 1665. Lit. 115.—
This edition of Bellini's work on the structure of the kidneys is augmented by similar illustrated treatises by Botallus, Blasius, etc.
50. BEVEROVICIUS (Beverwyck), Joannes. De vitae termino fatali an mobili, cum doctorum responsis. 9 leaves, 488 pp., 14 leaves, 152 pp. Printer's device. 4to. Vellum. Leyde, 1636-39. Lit. 32.—
A few waterstains.
51. BEVEROVICIUS, J. De calculo renum et vesicae. 8 leaves, 305 pp., 7 leaves. Printer's device. 16mo. Old vellum. Leyde, Elzevir, 1638. Lit. 70.—
Nice Elzevir-edition of this treatise on gravels and lithotomy.

52. BIANCHI, Joh. Baptista. De naturali in humano corpore, vitiosa morbosaque generatione historia. 1 leaf, 468 pp. With 3 engraved folding plates relating to human and animal embryology. 8vo. Old vellum. Turin, 1741. Lit. 70.—

First edition. Bianchi (1681-1761) was a celebrated anatomist. In 1715, the king of Sardinia built a convenient amphitheatre for his accomodation. The present book contains a history of the development of the human subject, from the unimpregnated ovum, up to the middle period of pregnancy. Bianchi supports the theory of the ovarists, supposing the germ to exist in the ovum before fecundation. This work also contains some observations on parasitic worms.

53. BICCHIERAI, Alessandro. Dei bagni di Montecatini. 4 leaves and 347 pp. With 4 engraved folding plates showing views of Montecatini. 4to. Old vellum. Florence, 1788. Lit. 20.—

Deals with the medicinal baths of Montecatini (Italy).—Fine copy.

- + 54. BILFINGER, Christian L. De tetano liber singularis theoretico-praticus. 130 pp. and 1 leaf. 4to. Calf (binding damaged). Lindau, 1763. Lit. 20.—

Deals with tetanus and its healing.

55. BLANCARDUS, Stephanus. Anatomia reformată, sive concinna corporis humani dissectio. Acc. De balsamatione. 8 leaves, 759 pp., index. With engraved frontispice, the author's portrait and 84 engraved plates. 8vo. Boards. Leyde, 1695. Lit. 110.—

Blancaard, a Dutchman, (1650-1702), was the first to make successful injections. The plates represent a vast material of anatomical details. At the end interesting treatise on embalming.—A few leaves brownstained. Two leaves waterstained, but good copy.

56. BLANCARD, St. Praxeos medicae idea nova, in qua origo omnium morborum ex acido, humorum incrossatione, etc. ostenditur. 6 leaves, 170 pp., 3 leaves. With 6 engraved plates. 12mo. Unbound. Amsterdam, 1685. Lit. 40.—

Unfortunately one leaf (only of the preface) and the author's portrait wanting, but text and plates complete.

57. BOERHAAVE, Herman. Tractatus de viribus medicamentorum. 16 leaves, 467 pp. 12mo. Vellum. Venice, 1736. Lit. 45.—

Important pharmaceutical work by this leading physician in the 18th century.

58. BOERHAAVE, H. De morbis oculorum. Add. Dissertatio anatomica de tunica oculi choroidea. 231 pp., 16 pp., 64 pp. With two folding plates. 8vo. Original boards. Venice, 1764. Lit. 80.—

Important work on eye-diseases. There is added another opthalmological treatise, by Leincker.

59. BOERHAAVE, H. Tractatio medico-practica de lue venerea continens huius affectionis historiam, originem, progressum, causas, symptomata et curationem. 4 leaves, 302 pp. Large 8vo. Old vellum. Leyde, 1751. Lit. 60.—

Proksch I, 35. Good edition of this well known work on syphilis, its history and healing.

Strabi Galli poetae hortulus amoenissimus*. 156 and 3 leaves. With 23 pretty and partly very curious woodcuts (of H. S. Beham?) showing plants, baths, figures of ills). Small 8vo. Vellum. Frankfurt, Egenolph, 1556. Lit. 140.—

This work which is also remarkable for the pretty woodcuts deals with dietetics and contains also Fiera's botanical poem « De virtutibus herbarum ». — Brownstained. Scarce.

122. ESTIENNE, Charles - LIEBAULT, Jean. L'agriculture et maison rustique. Plus un brief recueil des chasses du cerf, du sanglier, ... du loup, des oiseaux et de la fauconnerie. 12, 394 leaves, index. With many large woodcuts relating to distillation and agriculture, laying out of pleasure-gardens, border around the title and woodcut initials. 4to. Lyons, Jaques de Puis, 1583.

Bound up with:

CLAMORGAN, Jean de. La chasse du loup, nécessaire à la maison rustique. 19 pp. With 14 fine woodcuts representing hunting scenes; woodcut border and initial letters. 4to. Paris, J. du Puis, 1583. Two books in one vol. Old vellum. Lit. 280.—

Scarce edition of this well-known French work containing the « Chasse du loup », which is very often wanting. This book is of various and especially medical interest: The first book treats with agriculture, and horticulture, treatment of all diseases of domestic animals, household in general, and dietetics, the second with medical and other plants, their usefulness, the third deals with fruit-culture and confectionary, and particularly with distillation, the sixth with viticulture, (preparation of medical wines), and the seventh with hunting. This work is especially esteemed on account of its illustrations and of the early book on wolfhunting by Clamorgan with fine woodcuts.—Upper margin of some leaves waterstained, somewhat browned as usual on account of the poor quality of the paper, otherwise good copy.

123. EUSTACHI, Bartholomaeo. Erotiani Graeci scriptores vetustissimi vocum, quae apud Hippocratem sunt collectio cum annotationibus Bartholomaei Eustachii. Eiusd. libellus de multitudine. 22 and 152 leaves. Printer's device. 4to. Old limp vellum. Venice, Giunta, 1566. Lit. 115.—

Brunet II, 1049. Early Greek-Latin dictionary of Hippocrates' terms. Important for the interesting annotations of Eustachi, the great anatomist.

Choulant, p. 61. First and apparently unique edition of Maximinus, edition of Eustachi-Lancisi's anatomical plates.—Good, large copy.

125. EUSTACHI-PETRIOLI, Gaetano. I: Riflessioni e compimento delle riflessioni anatomiche sulle note di G. M. Lancisi fatte sopra le tavole del Eustachio. 5 leaves, 8, 10, 27, and 200 pp. With large engraved vignette on title (dissection) and 41 (instead of 49) full-page plates. II: Corso anatomico o sia universal commento nelle tavole di Eustachio. 6 leaves, 254 pp. With the same vignette on title. Two vols. Old vellum. Rome, 1740-42. Lit. 100.—

Two different works by Petrioli on Eustachi's famous anatomical tables which are rarely to be found together.—Plates 1-8 (only the newly added plates by Petrioli) missing, but the Eustachi-Lancisi-plates complete.

126. FABRE, Pierre. Recherches sur différens points de physiologie, de pathologie et de thérapeutique, pour servir de base à un cours de pathologie. 8vo. Old calf. Paris, 1783. Lit. 18.—

127. FABRE, P. Traité des maladies vénériennes. Two vols. 8vo. Boards (back wanting). Paris, 1765. Lit. 35.—

Proksch I, 34. Good work on venereal diseases. Deals mainly with small-pox.

128. FABRICIUS AB AQUAPENDENTE, Hieronymus. De musculi artificio. De ossium dearticulationibus. 8 leaves, 214 pp. Small 4to. Modern boards. Vicenza, 1614. Lit. 180.—

Rare editio princeps.

One of the author's best works on muscles. He intended to publish a complete myology, but the plates became never edited as they have been bought by Thomas Bartholinus.

129. FABRICIUS AB AQUAPENDENTE, H. De motu locali animalium secundum totum. 123 pp., 32 pp. Small 4to. Modern boards. Padua, 1618. Lit. 175.—

Good edition of this famous medical poem containing Latin and Italian text.

145. FREIND, John. De purgantibus in secunda variolarum confluentium febre adhibendis epistola. Ad. R. Mead de quibusdam variolarum generibus epistola II. Three parts. 8vo. Old vellum. Rotterdam, 1720-24. Amsterdam, 1726. Lit. 40.—

Freind and Mead were the best authors on small-pox in their century.

- X 146. FRIESZ (PHRYESEN), Laurentius. Ein hochnutzlicher tractat der eygenschaft unnd würekung / der wunderbaren natur aller Wildbeder / so in Teütschen Landen gelegen. 18 leaves. With vignette on the title. 4to. Ms. vellum. Strassburg, B. Grueninger, 1538. Lit. 350.—

Rare edition of this very famous work on the balnearic stations of Germany and Switzerland. Some of the watering-places mentioned are still famous, viz. Pfeffers, Baden, Baden-Baden, Emms, Plombières, Gebersswiler etc. Fries says that the waters of these places differ considerably according to the « complexion » of the terrain where they are situated and owing to their admixture with the vapours of the surrounding atmosphere, their « rottenness » when stagnant, and to the influence of the stars. He thinks that they all contain sulphur, but Plombières in addition to this contains lead and alum; Gebersswiler no sulphur, but a great deal of salpêtre and iron; Pfeffers gold and saltpeter; Baden alum. Fries, a native of Colmar, born c. 1485, became town physician of Metz. He was staunch supporter of the Arabian medical tradition and wrote various works including a meteorological almanach in 1529, which Rabelais, appointed town physician of Metz in 1545, deriding his famous «Pantagrueline prognostication par Maistre Alcofibras architriclin dudict Pantagruel».—No copy in B. M. or Surgeon General's catalogue.—Waterstains on first leaves, old owner's inscription on title, otherwise good copy.

Remarkable for the interesting woodcuts which represent appliances for dressing wounds, engraved from Guido Guidi (Vido Vidius).—Nice copy.

152. GALENUS. Epitomes omnium operum, sectio quarta. Per Andrea Lacunam collecta. 704 pp., index. Printer's device. 16mo. Modern vellum. Lyons, Rovillius, 1553. Lit. 50.—
We mention: De simplicium medicamentorum facultatibus. De compositione pharmacorum. De antidotis, etc.

153. GALENUS. Libellus cui titulum fecit, quos, quibus et quando purgare oporteat. A Sebastiano Coquillato Scipione. 250 pp., 1 leaf. Printer's device. 16mo. Vellum. Lyons, Rovillius, 1557. Lit. 70.—
Nice copy.

- X 154. GAMANN, Georg. Chymische Reise und Haussapothecca samt ausführlichen Bescheid was für Unterscheid zwischen der Galenischen und Paracelsischen chymischen Medizin sey und wie mit denen nach Spagirischer Kunst bereiteten Subtilitäten die Gesundheit zu erhalten. 3 leaves, 230 pp., 14 leaves. 16mo. Wrappers. Jena, 1678. Lit. 75.—

This little work, based upon Paracelsus doctrine, is of medical, pharmaceutical and alchemical interest and deals especially with hermetic medicine. We mention: De oleo Piperis destillato, de oleo cinamomi, de oleo nucis myristicae, de quinta essentia croci, etc. etc.

155. GANDINI, Carlo. Gli elementi dell'arte sfygmica ossia la dottrina del polso, ricavata dalla medicina cinese ed europea. 4 leaves, 296 pp. With two engraved folding plates, relating to pulsation. 4to. Boards. Genova, 1769. Lit. 125.—

Remarkable work on pulsation and sphygmology. Of particular interest as containing in the first part a large chapter on history of Chinese Medicine.

- X 156. GATTA, Constantino. Aurora Aeromatica, sive Isagogicon tria complectens systemata, primum astronomicum, secundum medicum, tertium physicum. 12 leaves, 172 pp., 4 leaves. With folding plate. 8vo. Vellum. Naples, 1704. Lit. 45.—

The first of the three parts treats astronomy, of the two others we mention: «Systema vitae microcosmi, vasorum lymphaticorum investigatur usus, (second part), mistorum scrutinatur anatome, spirituum hermeticorum energia, hermeticae doctrinae soliditas» (third part).—Browned.

Early edition of these collected works.

Gatinaria, born at Vercelli, was physician in Milan and Pavia, and died 1496. His De curis egritudinum is his chief work and contains many interesting surgical observations. In the chapter 47 is contained a description of a syringe.

Of great importance as containing the treatise on syphilis by Sebastianus Aquilanus, (10 leaves) one of the earliest interesting works on this disease with detailed prescriptions for its healing.—First leaves slightly water-stained, but good copy of this rare work.

158. GAUB, Hieronymus David. Institutiones pathologiae medicinalis. 5 leaves, 493 pp. 8vo. Half calf. Leyde, 1758. Lit. 50.—

Gaub, (1705-80), was one of Boerhave's pupils. «His "Institutiones pathologiae" was a favorite text book on the continent for a long time. He envisaged irritability as a pathologic increase of vital power and applied this conception to disease. This did great harm, as his book, which passed through many editions and translations was in the hands of all students to most of whom Morgagni and Matthew Baillie were unknown» (Garrison).

159. (GESNER, Conrad). Thesaurus Evonymi Philiatrī de remediis secretis, liber physicus, medicus et etiam chymicus. 4 leaves, 498 pp., index. With many woodcuts in the text (plants, stills etc.). Printer's device. 12mo. Half vellum. Lyons, A. Vincentius, 1558. Lit. 150.—

Good edition of this work which was the most popular hand-book on household-pharmacy, distillation and also alchemy, in the 16th century, and reprinted in numerous editions and translated into many languages. Besides this work contains several cosmetical recipes. We mention: «De viribus liquorum destillatorum, de fornacibus, de aquae vitae viribus, de quinta essentia, aquae opthalmicae, de aquis odoris, aquae destillatae cosmeticae, aquae ad tingendos capillos, dentibus purgandis, de oleis, de vinis medicatis, etc. etc. », all illustrated by numerous figures. The margin of a few leaves waterstained, but nice copy.

160. (GESNER, C.). Tesaurus di Evonomo Filatro de remedii secreti. In Italian. 152 and 16 leaves. With numerous, large cuts in the text (plants, distilling apparatus, etc.). Printer's device. 8vo. Old vellum. Venice, Sessa, 1556. Lit. 60.—

Very waterstained throughout.

161. GLISSON, Francis. De rachitide, sive de morbo puerili tractatus. 10 leaves, 427 pp. With several interesting woodcuts in the text, instruments and curious engraved frontispice showing cases of rickets. 8vo. Old calf. Leyde, 1671. Lit. 195.—

Glisson (1597-1677) of Rampisham in Dorsetshire, was a graduate of Cambridge and Regius Professor of physics in that University for some forty years. As anatomist, physiologist and pathologist he was highly praised by Haller and Virchow, and his name is famous for several important things: he gave the original and classic account of infantile rickets, he employed suspension in spinal deformities, and gave the first accurate description of the capsule of the liver investing the portal vein (Glisson's capsule) and its blood-supply.

Sound copy. Scarce.

162. GORDON, Bernard de. Obras en que se contienen los siete libros de la practica, o lilio de la medicina, las tables de los ingenios de curar las enfermedades, el regimiento de las agudas, el tratado de los niños, y regimiento del ama, y los pronosticos. 2 leaves, 364 pp., 4 leaves. Folio. Vellum. Madrid, Antonio Gonzales, 1697. Lit. 90.—

Small portion of the margin of last leaf gone affecting only a few words of the index.

Upper margins waterstained, somewhat used.

163. GOULARD, Thomas. Oeuvres de chirurgie. Two vols. 8vo. Calf. Montpellier, 1778. Lit. 30.—

The first vol. deals with surgery, the second with syphilis and other venereal diseases.

164. GRADI (OR DE GRADIBUS), Joannes Matthaeus Ferrarius. Practica cum tabula. Praxis in nonum Almansoris. Adjuncto tractatu de febribus Antonii de Gradi. 373 leaves. With woodcut initials and large printer's device. Folio. Vellum. Venice, Lucantonio de Giunta, 1521. Lit. 280.—

« J. Matthaeus de Ferrariis de Gradi (d. 1472) laboured with great success as professor of medicine in Pavia, as body-physician at the court of Francesco Sforza and as a practitioner, much respected and consulted by the most eminent. His Practica and Consilia (which are not without interest in their bearings on contemporary history) contain many original observations and directions based upon personal judgement, e. g. dietetics, rules for students and travellers; cases of writer's cramp; facial paralysis; salivation; haemoptysis with dysmenorrhoea; sterility due to malposition of the uterus; recommendation of pessaries in the treatment of uterine prolapse, of trusses with flat and square pads in treatment of herniae etc. The particular attention paid to anatomy is noteworthy » (Neuburger).—Somewhat very water- and dampstained, especially on the first leaves and towards the end of the book, besides a complete copy of this early and rare edition.

165. GREW, Nehemias. Anatomie des plantes, qui contient une description exacte de leurs parties et de leurs usages, et qui fait voir comment elles se forment et comment elles croissent, et l'Ame des plantes par Dedu. Avec un recueil par Grew et

Boyle. 4 leaves, 310 pp., 1 leaf, 108 pp. With frontispice and engraved folding plate showing 14 figures. 12mo. Calf. Leyde, 1685. Lit. 120.—

Good French edition of this important work. Grew's studies on the anatomy of leaves, flowers, fruits and seeds, the author's chief work, were first published in this book. Grew was probably the first to consider the existence of sex in plants. Haller styles Grew « An industrious Observer of Nature in every direction ».—Rare.

166. GRISONI, Federico. Ordini di cavalcare et modi di conoscere le nature de' cavalli, emendare i vitii loro, et ammaestrarli per l'uso della guerra et commodità de gli huomini. 238 leaves. Printer's device. 8vo. Vellum. Venice, Valgrisi, 1552. Lit. 90.—

Brunet II, 1759. First edition. « Ce traité a été réimprimé souvent. L'ed. de 1552 est la plus ancienne que nous connaissons ».

Deals mainly with horse—diseases.—Fine copy.

167. GRUBE, Herman. Commentarius de modo simplicium medicamentorum facultates cognoscendi. Acc. Thomae Bartholini epistola de simplicibus medicamentis inquilinis cognoscendis. 8 leaves, 29 and 173 pp., 10 leaves. 12mo. Unbound. Copenhagen, 1669. Lit. 35.—

This pharmaceutical work treats many Danish remedies.—Browned.

The author was a pupil of Malpighi. Guilelmini was a renowned chemist in his time. First edition.

169. GUYBERT, Philibert. Le médecin charitable enseignant la manière de faire et préparer en la maison avec facilité et peu de frais les remèdes pour toutes les maladies. 5 leaves, 766 pp. 8vo. Old Calf. Lyons, 1636. Lit. 25.—

« L'apothicaire charitable, manière de faire diverses confitures, discours de la peste, des vins médicinaux », etc.

One of the most popular French medical works in the 17th and 18th century. It deals principally with house—hold pharmacology, perfumery, preparation of confection, etc.

170. GYNAECIORUM sive de mulierum affectibus commentarii Graecorum, Latinorum, Barbarorum, iam olim et nunc recens editorum. Three vols. Several chapters printed in Greek. With several woodcuts (anatomical figures, surgical instruments, wombs, obstetrical figures) and one interesting full-page cut: Extractio Lithopaedii Senonensis ex matris utero. 4to. Half calf. Basel, Waldkirch, 1586. Lit. 300.—

Celebrated and very rare collection of all important works on female diseases written from the first times of medical history up to those days.

This work is very rarely to be found complete existing mostly only one or two vols. A fourth one, appeared independently two years later, is missing nearly always. This fourth vol. contains only Mercato's « De morbis mulierum communibus ». The collection itself is complete with three vols.

It deals with the following authors: Plater, Moschion (famous catechism on diseases of women written about 580?), Cleopatrae, Moschionis, Prisciani libri, Trotula, Nicolaus Rochaeus, Lud. Bonacioli, Jac. Sylvius, Joh. Rueff, H. Mercurialis, Casp. Bauhinus, I. B. Montanus, Trincavellius, Alb. Bottones, Jean Le Bon, Paré, Guillemeau, Albucasis, Franc. Roussetus, Lithopaedius Senonensis, Maur. Cordaeus, etc.

By far the only work which gives a most complete account on all the important treatises on gynaecology from the beginning of history of medicine until the 16th century.—Two leaves of the preface of the first and second vol. missing. Old owner's inscription on two titles cancelled, causing small holes. Partly very browned as usual.

171. HALES, Stephen. Statica de' vegetabili, ed analisi dell'aria. 4 leaves, 368 pp. With 20 most interesting engraved folding plates showing plants and apparatus. Large 8vo. Boards. Naples, 1756. Lit. 65.—

tro Woolhouse. 301 pp. With one engraved folding plate showing eye-operations. 4to. Boards. Venice, 1783. Lit. 65.—

Remarkable work on eye-diseases, especially on cataract.

180. HERBOLARIO VOLGARE (in Italian) nel quale le virtù delle herbe et molti altri simplici se dechiarano, con alcune belle aggiunte novamente de latino in volgare traduto. 176 (instead of 180) leaves. With large woodcut on verso of A A 6 and about 150 large woodcuts of plants. 8vo. Boards. Venice, 1555. Lit. 125.—

Rare edition of the Latin Herbarius translated into the Italian, being a close translation of this Herbarius with a preface by the translator, and an index of diseases with their remedies in alphabetic order. All editions of this Herbolario volgare are scarce and usually in bad, incomplete state. Our copy lacks the leaves c 6, d 6, t 3 and t 6 = only four leaves. Water-stained in places, short upper margins, some leaves repaired.

181. HIPPOCRATES. Opera omnia. Per Janum Cornarium conscripta. 8 leaves, 859 pp., 1 leaf. With figural initial and Froben's printer's device (repeated). Stout 8vo. Half vellum. Basel, Froben, 1554. Lit. 110.—

This Basel edition, edited by Janus Cornarius, is highly appreciated on account of its textual and critical accuracy.

182. HIPPOCRATES. Prognosticorum libri tres, cum Galeni tribus in eosdem commentariis, Laurentio Laurentiano interprete. Greek and Latin text. 8 leaves, 87 leaves. Printer's device. 8vo. Old calf. Paris, Bogardus, 1543. Lit. 45.—

Several leaves shaved by the binder's knife affecting some head-lines.

Nice edition with the Greek-Latin text commented by Vassacus.

184. HOFMANN, Caspar. Tractatus de usu lienis cerebri et de ichoribus. Ad. Fr. de le Boe (Sylvius) Experimentia medica. 16 leaves, 302 pp., 14 leaves, 113 pp. With engraved frontispice. 16mo. Old vellum. Leipzig — Frankfurt, 1664. Lit. 60.—

This edition of the treatise on the brain is augmented and edited by Sylvius.—Title with short margins.

Especially of pharmaceutical interest: « De sudoriferis, de clysteribus, de vomitoriis », etc. etc. — Browned.

186. HUERTA, Garcia del (ab Horto). Aromatum et simplicium aliquot medicamentorum apud Indos nascentium historia. A Carolo Clusio illustrata. 217 pp., 3 leaves. With numerous full-page wood-cuts in the text (plants, many of which American plants). Printer's device. 8vo. Old limp vellum, with the letters C. G. G. 1583. Antwerp, Plantin, 1579. Lit. 300.—

Pritzel, 4316. This early work on Indian plants describes principally from a medical point of view especially many plants from the New World. We mention: « De nague de radice Chinae (Guaiacum ex Novo Orbe) », dealing with Guaiac as remedy of syphilis, the history of this disease, etc.) and many other exotics drugs.—A few leaves waterstained.

187. HUGO SENENSIS, (Ugo Benzi.) Expositio super libros Tegni Galeni. 94 and 4 leaves. With very pretty large and small initials on ground criblé; printer's device. Folio. Venice, Oct. Scotus, 1518.

Bound up with :

Same author. Expositio super aphorismos Hippocratis et super commentum Galeni eius interpretis. 160 leaves. With fine large and small initial letters on ground criblé and large printer's device on black ground. Folio. Venice, Oct. Scotus, 1517. Two works in one vol. Old limp vellum. Lit. 325.—

Early edition. Hugo Senensis (Ugo Benzi) died probably in 1439 at Ferrara. He was professor at Pavia, Piacenza, Florence, Bologna, Padova, etc. He was one of the most important physicians of the Paduan school and published a. o. interesting studies on gastric-vertigo, naso-pharyngeal polyps, etc.—A few large but faint waterstains, but very fine, tall copy of the two different works. Very rare.

Porphyrius, de divinis atque daemonibus. Psellus, de daemonibus. Mercurii Trismegisti Pimander. Marsilii Ficini, de triplici vita. 175 leaves (badly numbered 177) and one leaf for Aldus' printer's device. With the Aldus' anchor at the beginning and on the last blank leaf. Folio. Old vellum. Venice, in aedibus Aldi et Andrea soceri, 1516. Lit. 475.—

Brunet III, 494. Caillet, 5489.

Very rare second (first edition 1497) edition of this highly interesting collection of the chief works of these great philosophers, published by Aldus' press. For the first time there are compiled in this collection the most important works referring to occult philosophy, medicine and also alchemy. Caillet says about Jamblichus: «Precieux documents sur l'hermetisme et le magisme qui fleurissaient chez les grands peuples de l'antiquité et en particulier chez les Orientaux». From the Hermes or Mercurius Trismegistos, Pimander sive de potestate et sapientia dei, ascribed to the famous patron of all alchemists «Hermes Trismegistos», originated to the so called Hermetic philosophy. Besides we mention the «Aurea verba» of Pythagoras and Ficinus' De triplici vita libri tres (De vita sana, vita longa, de vita coelitus comparanda). The first of these three books deals with the standard of life of learned man; the second with prolongation of life; in the third he teaches mystical, astral medicine. Contains chapters on headaches, diseases of the stomach, circulation of the blood, dietetics, etc., besides astronomical and philosophical chapters.—First leaves with large waterstains, last leaves partly very dampstained, besides large copy.

The last part deals with pediatrics.

194. KETHAM, Johannes de. Fasciculus medicinae 1491. Monumenta Medica I. Facsimile of the first edition of the magnificently illustrated work with a historical introduction and notes by Karl Sudhoff. (The English edition with translation by Charles Singer, and the Italian by C. Albizzati). The facsimile of the incunabulum with its 6 full page woodcuts and the introduction (20 pp. with 5 text figures), illustrated by 14 plates in photolithography the first of which is coloured by hand. Large folio. Florence, 1923. Half linen :

£ 2/6/- or $ 10.00 or Swiss Frs. 55.—

Edition de luxe, of the English edition, with eight hand coloured plates, half leather :

£ 3/10/- or $ 15.00 or Swiss Frs. 85.—

Full prospectus with specimen page of the three different editions on request.

195. (KETHAM). Fasciculus de medicina, 1493. Monumenta Medica II. Facsimile reproduction of the most beautifully illustrated medical book of the 15th century, printed at Venice in 1493. With an introduction and explanatory matter by Charles Singer (in English). Together with a collection of 90 illustrative figures in 36 additional folio plates and a complete translation into English of the Anatomy of Mundinus. Two vols. Folio. Half linen and half leather. Florence, 1924.

Half linen : £ 3/6/- or $ 14.00 or Swiss Frs. 80.—

Half leather : £ 4/-/- or $ 17.00 or Swiss Frs. 90.—

196. KULM, Adam. Tabulae anatomicae, acc. annotationes et tabulae Aeneae. 4 leaves, 215 pp. With engr. front. and 28 engr. plates. Large 8vo. Vellum. Rome, 1748. Lit. 60.—

Good anatomical work with excellent plates. This work was one of the first to be introduced in the Far East, and had a great influence on the development of medicine in Japan and China.—Upper margins water-stained.

197. LAMOTTE, Mauquest de, Guillaume. Traité complet de chirurgie, contenant des observations et des réflexions sur toutes les maladies chirurgicales. Two vols. Calf (bindings scratched). Paris, Didot, 1771. Lit. 25.—

Deals with mercury and contains an enumeration of writers on the subject.

199. LANCISI, G. M. De motu cordis et aneurysmatibus, opus postumum. 2 leaves, 28 and 219 pp. With 8 folding plates and vignette on title. 4to. Old vellum. Naples, 1738. Lit. 145.—

Second edition of this posthumous work, certainly the most important of this author. Lancisi attempted a classification of cardiac diseases, described valvular vegetations and made interesting observations on aneurysm and syphilis of the heart.—Browned as usual.

200. LANCISI, G. M. Dissertatio de nativis, deque adventitiis romani coeli qualitatibus, cui accedit historia epidemiae rheumaticae, quae per hyemem anni 1709 vagata est. 8 leaves, 258 pp., index. Engraved vignette on title. 4to. Vellum. Rome, 1711. Lit. 60.—

First edition. Interesting work on the hygienical conditions of Rome by this great physician, with a treatise on the epidemics of influenza in 1709 at Rome.—Upper margins very waterstained.

201. LANGNER, Andreas. Promptuarium. Wie zur Zeit der Pestilenz ein jeder Gesunder und Kranker sich praeservieren und curieren soll. 52 (instead of 54) leaves. With two woodcuts (anatomical figures) and beautiful woodcut border around each leaf. 4to. Red calf. Leipzig, 1576. Lit. 80.—

This rare treatise on plague is remarkable on account of the beautiful woodcut borders on criblee ground surrounding each leaf. Many red printing. The anatomical figures refer to bleeding.—Unfortunately two leaves wanting, a few short margins. Notwithstanding these defects a good copy of the fine book.

202. LAURENTIUS, (DU LAURENS), Andreas. Historia anatomica controversiis et observationibus adornata. Acc. opusculum de crisibus. Laz. Meyssonier, tractatus de scriptis. Two parts. 16 leaves, 890 pp., 139 pp., index. 8vo. Calf (binding shabby). Lyons, 1650. Lit. 110.—

« This text-book of anatomy was the most popular of its time and was frequently reprinted » (Singer, Evolution of anatomy). It contains numerous criticisms on Vesalius.—Some waterstains. On the fly-leaf: Philippus Falcettus Vigonensis Med. 1651.

203. LAURENTIUS (DU LAURENS), A. Oeuvres. 8 leaves, 598 pp., 9 leaves, 4 leaves, 395 pp. With 26 anatomical full-page engravings. Stout folio. 18th cent. calf. Paris, 1639. Lit. 225.—

Good edition of Laurentius' collected works, containing also the author's chief work on anatomy, illustrated by 26 copper-plates engraved after those of Vesalius. Laurentius was professor at the University of Paris and physician in ordinary to Henry IV. Contents: Douze livres des oeuvres anatomiques. Trois livres des crises. Deux livres des escrouelles. Quatre discours: de la conservation de la veue, des maladies melancholiques, des catarrhes, et de la vieillesse, etc. — Waterstained and browned, one leaf slightly torn.

204. LAVOISIER, Antoine Laurent. Traité élémentaire de chimie présenté dans un ordre nouveau et d'après les découvertes modernes. Nouvelle édition à laquelle on a joint la Nomenclature Ancienne et Moderne. Three vols. I. 44, 322 pp.; II. 8, 326 pp.; III. 4, 259 pp. With 13 folding copper plates and 3 tables. 8vo. 18th century marbled calf. Paris, Cachet, 1789. Lit. 400.—

The very rare second edition published in the same year as the first one of this most important work in the history of chemistry. This second edition is to be preferred to the first, as it contains a quite new third volume, the Nomenclature.—Very fine copy. Scarce.

205. LENNIUS, Levinus (Lemne, Levin). Similitudinum ac parabolarum quae in bibliis ex herbis atque arboribus desumuntur, dilucida explicatio. Acc. De gemma, auctore Fr. Rueo. De astrologia liber. 8 leaves, 288 pp. 16mo. Frankfurt, 1596.

Bound up with:

Same author. De habitu et constitutione corporis. H. Rantzovius. De conservanda valetudine. G. Gratarolus. De memoria reparanda. Three works. 8 leaves, 185 pp., 4 leaves, 239 pp. 16mo. Frankfurt, 1596. Two books in one vol. Old vellum.

Lit. 140.—

I. This work treats especially with plants mentioned in the Bible, but also with exotic American drugs and occult matter. It is augmented by an interesting work by Rueus on precious stones and a treatise on astrology.

II. Brunet III, 971. Deals especially with physiology, circulation of the blood, dietetics, etc. The treatise by Rantzovius on dietetics is one of the best works on this subject in the 16th century.

250. PALFYN, Jean. Nouvelle ostéologie, ou description exacte des os du corps humain. 24 pp., 390 pp., 3 leaves. With 8 engraved folding plates. 8vo. Old vellum. Paris, 1731. Lit. 70.—

Palfyn, a prominent obstetrician, reinvented or reintroduced the forceps (mains de fer). This work treats osteology; illustrated by several plates.

251. PARÉ, Ambrosius. Opera. Diligentia Jacobi Guillemeau. 6 leaves, 872 pp. (instead of 884), 11 leaves. With portrait of Paré, Hippocrates and Galen and hundreds of fine woodcuts (animals, anatomic details, bandages, instruments, splints, operations, artificial limbs, foetus, abnormities, monsters, alembics, etc.). Printer's device. Folio. Vellum. Paris, Du Puys, 1582. Lit. 375.—

First Latin edition of Paré's works, containing not only his surgical work, but also his other works. (26 different works are enumerated in the table). We mention: «Via ad chirurgiam compendiaris, de humani corporis anatome, de contusionibus et gangraenis, de ulceribus, fistulis, de fasciis, de fracturis, de lue venerea, de infantum variolis, de venenis, de peste, de hominis generatione, de monstris, de distillationibus, etc.» Deals also with dentistry, eyesurgery, etc. Paré invented many new surgical instruments, introduced massage, artificial limbs and artificial eyes. He was first to suggest syphilis as a cause of aneurysm and introduced in dentistry reimplantation of the teeth. This edition is especially remarkable for its great number of very interesting woodcuts. Complete copies are very rarely to be found.—Our copy wants 6 leaves (pp. 721-732). Title badly repaired with loss of a few words and soiled, margins of last three leaves of index repaired, waterstain on the lower margins of first leaves, upper right-hand-corner of one leaf gone, otherwise an unusually well preserved copy. Very rare.

252. PARÉ, A. De chirurgie ende opera van alle de Wercken, raedt ende opperste Chirurgijn van vier Koningen in Vanckrijk. Uyt de Francoysche in de Nederlandtsche sprake door C. Battum. 6 leaves, 936 (instead of 940) pp., 6 leaves. With hundreds of fine woodcuts (instruments, anatomic details, bandages, splints, operations, abnormities, animals, plants, etc.). Folio. Old calf (back damaged). Vlissingen, Picq, 1655. Lit. 300.—

Rare Dutch edition of the Opera Omnia. Contains not only Paré's surgical work, but also his other works. Rare like all copies of Paré's works.—Pages 385-388 wanting.—A few leaves loose, but a good copy of this work which as a rule is imperfect.

253. PASCOLI, Alessandro. De homine sive de corpore humano vitam habente libri tres. 7 leaves, 488 pp., 6 leaves. With the portrait of the author and six engraved anatomical plates. 4to. Old vellum. Venice, 1735. Lit. 95.—

300. SANTORINI, Giov. Domenico. Septemdecim tabulae quas edit iisque alias addit de structura mammarum et de tunica testis vaginali Michael Girardi. 5 leaves, XXXV pp., 217 pp. With the very fine large portrait of Santorini and 42 excellent full-page plates of which 21 outline plates. Folio. Half calf. Parma, ex Regia Typographia (Bodoni); 1775. Lit. 180.—
Choulant, G. d. A. A., p. 104. Santorini was one of the best anatomists of his time. His plates are engraved in a fine, chalk-like style by F. Marcella after Piazzetta. This book is renowned for its plates as for its commentary, and beautifully printed by the greatest master of typography, Bodoni.—Inner margins of the portrait and the title soiled and repaired, besides fine copy with the excellent plates.

301. DE SAUVAGES, Fr. Boissier de. Nosologia methodica sistens morborum classes, genera et species, juxta Sydenhami mentem et botanicorum ordinem. 3 leaves, 843 pp. Large 4to. Old vellum. Venice, 1764. Lit. 45.—

Sauvages (1706-67) became mostly famous by his Nosologia as classifying according to Sydenham the diseases in a natural-historical way.

302. SCULTETUS, Iohannes. (Schultes). Armamentarium chirurgicum. 12 leaves, 328 pp., 7 leaves. With engraved frontispice, and 43 excellent full page plates and one figure in the text. 8vo. Vellum. Haag, 1656. Lit. 200.—

Johann Schultes (1595-1645), called Scultetus, is famous as one of the great illustrators of surgery and surgical instruments. His Armamentarium chirurgicum gives us a good side-light on the operations of the time through its interesting plates, representing such procedures as amputation of the breast, reduction of dislocations, passage of sounds, forceps delivery, etc.—Fine copy.

303. SENNERT, Daniel. De mulierum et infantium morbis ac symptomatibus. 12 leaves, 526 pp., 8 leaves, 614 pp., 5 leaves, 12 leaves, 449 pp., 10 leaves. With engraved frontispice and two folding plates. Very stout 4to. Old vellum. 1652-1654-1660. Lit. 40.—

Fourth, fifth and sixth book of the Opera Omnia. Contains also the Practicae medicinae and De morbis occultis, de lue venerea, de alexipharmacis compositis, etc. Of singular interest the first book dealing with pediatrics.—Browned.

304. SETHUS, Simeon. De alimentorum facultatibus, iuxta ordinem literarum digestum. Greek and Latin text. 4 leaves, 174 pp. 8vo. Vellum. Paris, 1658. Lit. 60.—

Brunet V, 319. Classical work on dietetics, containing an enumeration of very numerous foods and their healthfulness.—A few leaves browned.

305. SMELLIE, William. Traité de la theorie et des pratiques des accouchemens. Three vols. With 39 (instead of 40) very interesting engraved plates. Large 8vo. Old calf, back gilt. Paris, 1754-58. Lit. 50.—

First French edition of this famous obstetrical work. It is the first book to lay down safe rules for using the forceps and for differentiating contracted from normal pelves by actual measurement.—One plate wanting, but fine copy.

306. SNELLEN, Henricus. Theoriae mechanicae physico-medica delineatio, in qua damnosa eius praecepta ad rationis et experientiae lancem revocantur ac practice emendantur. 15 leaves, 310 pp., 12 leaves. 8vo. Old vellum. Leyde, 1705. Lit. 45.—

«Mechanica scientia in quibus utilis medico, mechanica regulae pro plethora refutantur, morbi remedio non ratiocinio curantur», etc. etc.

307. SPALLANZANI, Lazaro. Fisica animale e vegetabile. Three vols. With three engraved folding plates. 8vo. Boards. Venice, 1782. Lit. 85.—

Spallanzani (1729-99) was an investigator of singular power. He discovered the digestive power of saliva, and reaffirmed the solvent property of the gastric juice. He founded also the doctrine of the regeneration of the spinal cord through his discovery of its new growth during the regeneration of the tail in the lizard and made important investigations of the respiratory exchanges in warm and cold blooded animals, etc.—Good edition.

308. SPALLANZANI, L. Fisica animale e vegetabile. Three vols. With three plates. 8vo. Original boards. Venice, 1801. Lit. 80.—
309. (SPINAL CONSUMPTION). Della tabe dorsale ovvero della cura della consunzione negli uomini e nelle donne. 58 pp., 2 leaves. 8vo. Wrappers. Venice, 1785. Lit. 12.—
310. STAMPINI, Luigi. Descrizione d'un feto humano nato colla maggior parte delle membra radoppiate. With 7 large folding copper plates showing curious figures of monstrous embryos. Small folio. Boards. Rome, 1749. Lit. 30.—
311. (SURGERY). Le Vacher de la Feutrie, Fr. Moysant et La Marcellerie. Dictionnaire de chirurgie, contenant la description anatomique des parties du corps humain, le mécanisme des fonctions, etc. Two vols. Calf, gilt back. Paris, Lacombe, 1767. Lit. 25.—
Barbier I, 959.
312. SYLVIVS (DUBOIS), Jacobus. Morborum internorum prope omnium curatio ex Galeno et Marco Gattinaria. 166 pp., 1 leaf. Printer's device. 8vo. Old vellum. Venice, Valgrisius, 1548. Lit. 95.—
First edition. Sylvius was one of the teachers of Vesalius. This book run through 10 editions between 1548-1590.
313. SYLVIVS (DE LA BOE), Franciscus. Opera medica. 8 leaves, 747 pp., 20 leaves. Folio. Old vellum. Geneva, 1681. Lit. 65.—
Sylvius (1614-72) did for Harvey's ideas what Paré had done for those of Vesalius. As a teacher, he was wonderfully fertile in original ideas about the function of the ductless glands, acidosis, the thermal and tactile senses, etc. He was the first to distinguish between conglomerate and conglobate glands. His best service to medicine was that he took a firm upon the ultimate identity of organic and inorganic processes in chemistry.— Good folio edition. Without the portrait. Somewhat waterstained and browned.
314. (SYPHILIS). The earliest printed literature on syphilis. (From the years 1495-1498). Monumenta Medica III. Reproduced in facsimile with an introduction by Karl Sudhoff. (Adapted for English Readers by Charles Singer). With the photolithographed facsimile (350 pp.) of ten of the rarest and most important incunabula together with an introduction (48 pp. with 5 text figures). 4to. Florence, 1925.

315. TAURY, Danièle. Nouvelle anatomie raisonnée. 12 leaves, 379 pp. With 20 engraved full page plates. 8vo. Calf. Paris, 1690. Lit. 35.—
First edition.—Title repaired; old owner's inscription on the title cancelled.
316. TENZELL, Andreas. Medicina diastatica, hoc est singularis illa et admirabilis ad distans et beneficio mumialis transplantationis operationem habens. 7 leaves, 188 pp. With engraved title. 12mo. Jena, 1629.

Bound up with :

FONTANUS, Nicolaus. Aphorismi Hippocratis methodice dispositi quibus accedit tractatus de extractione foetus mortui per uncum. 6 leaves, 125 pp. 12mo. Amsterdam, 1633. Two works together. Vellum. Lit. 100.—

I. Caillet quotes only one edition of the same work of 1755 : « Ouvrage traitant de la guérison par les mumies d'après Paracelse ». Deals extensively with magnetism. We mention : De mumia quid sit, de differentiis mumiae microcosmicæ, de usu spirituale mumiae », etc.

II. Good treatise on obstetrics.

317. THRIVERUS (DRIVERE), Brachelius, Hieremias. Commentarii in Hippocratem de ratione victus in morbis acutis. 178 pp. Printer's device. 8vo. Modern vellum. Lyons, 1552. Lit. 65.—

The author, a Dutch physician, was known for his numerous erudite commentaries to Galen and Hippocrates.

318. THRIVERUS, B. In Polybum, aut Hippocratem, de ratione victus idiotarum aut privatorum commentarius. 59 pp., 2 leaves. Printer's device. 8vo. Modern vellum. Lyons, 1548. Lit. 60.—

Deals with dietetics.

319. TILING, Matthias. De febribus petechialibus tractatus curiosus. 20 leaves, 362 pp., 3 leaves. With curious engraved frontispice. 8vo. Old calf, back gilt. Frankfurt, 1676. Lit. 40.—

Browned.

320. TISSOT. L'onanisme. Dissertation sur les maladies produites par la masturbation. 22 pp., 1 leaf, 264 pp. 8vo. Vellum. Lausanne, 1769. Lit. 35.—

321. TISSOT. L'onanisme. — De l'onanisme ou discours philosophique et morale sur la luxure artificielle et sur les crimes relatifs. Two different works. 12 leaves, 264 pp. ; 1 leaf, 183 pp. Small 8vo. Half calf. Lausanne, 1764. Lausanne, 1769.

Lit. 45.—

322. TOMAI, Tomaso. Idea del giardino del mondo, ove oltre molti secreti maravigliosi di natura, sono posti varii et soavissimi frutti curiosissimi secondo la diversità del gusto degli huomini. 12 leaves, 168 pp. 16mo. Boards. Venice, without date (but about 1670). Lit. 30.—

This curious booklet deals with alchemy, medicine, dietetics, metallurgy, cosmetics, etc. etc.

323. TORNAMIRA, (Jean de Tournemire). Clarificatorium super nono Almansoris cum textu ipsius Rhasis. Tractatus eiusdem magistri Joannis de febribus. Black letter. 128 leaves (the last blank). With pretty initial letters on black ground and printer's device at the end. Folio. Vellum. Venice, Bonetus Locatellus for Octavianus Scotus, 1507. Lit. 300.—

Apparently first 16th cent. edition. « Joannes de Tornamira (b. 1329) studied in Montpellier and practised partly there and partly in Avignon (as body-physician to the Popes Gregory XI and Clement VII). He was one of the most dexterous and learned physicians of his day. Of his writings there were printed : Clarificatorium juvenum super nono Almansoris cum textu ipsius Rhasis, one of the most popular compendiums of the 14th and 15th centuries » (Neuburger). We mention : « De epilepsia, de incubo, de aegritudinibus oculorum et aurium, de dolore dentium », etc. At the end a treatise on fever-diseases.—Some waterstains, but good, large copy. Marginal annotations by contemporary hand on title and in the text.—Scarce.

324. TORTI, Francesco. Therapeutice specialis ad febres periodicas perniciosas. Add. responsiones Jatro-apologeticae ad Ramazzinum. 8 leaves, 526 pp., 1 leaf. With engraved frontispice bearing the author's portrait, and one engraved plate. 4to. Original boards. Venice, 1732. Lit. 65.—

« Francesco Torti (1658-1741), professor at Modena and a good pharmacologist, wrote an important treatise on the pernicious malarial fevers, which practically introduced the employment of cinchona bark into Italian practice and introduced the term mal aria » (Garrison). Contains Torti's reply against Ramazzini about the abuse of the cinchona bark.

325. TRINCAVELLIUS, Victorius. Opera omnia. Two parts. 8 leaves, 165 pp., 17 leaves, 396 pp., 38 leaves; 6 leaves, 251 pp., 8 leaves, 351 pp., 7 leaves. Printer's device. Stout folio. Old calf, gilt back. Lyons, Giunta, 1592. Lit. 80.—

Good edition of the Opera Omnia. Contains a. o. the author's well known and exhaustive work on pharmacology: « De usu et compositione medicamentorum ».

326. VALLERIOLA, Franciscus. Loci medicinae communes, tribus libris digesti. 20 leaves, 922 pp., index, 155 pp. and index. With printer's device (repeated). 8vo. Vellum. Venice, V. Valgrisius, 1563. Lit. 35.—

Valleriola (1504-83), professor of medicine in Turin, was known as author of several epidemiographical writings. Second edition.—Somewhat very waterstained, binding shabby.

327. VALLERIOLA, F. Observationum medicinalium libri sex. 12 leaves, 524 pp., 18 leaves. 8vo. Vellum. Lyons, 1588. Lit. 40.—

328. VALLESIO, Francesco. Controversiarum medicarum et philosophicarum editio. 16 leaves, 1151 pp. With printer's device. Stout 8vo. Half calf. Lyons, Rovillius, 1591. Lit. 50.—

Francesco Valles, a Spanish physician, was one of the most famous Hippocraticians of his time and one of the first to study pathological anatomy.—A few tiny wormholes. Marginal annotations by an early hand.—Scarce.

329. VALVERDE, Juan, de Hamusco. Anatomia del corpo umano. 18 and 154 leaves. With fine engraved title showing skeletons and dissection-scenes on the bottom and 42 excellent copper-plates mostly engraved after Vesalius. Small folio. Vellum. Rome, Salamanca, 1560 (at the end: Vinegia, Nicolo Bevilacqua). Lit. 300.—

Choulant, Gesch. d. anat. Abb. p. 64. First Italian edition. Valverde, a Spaniard, who is said to have carried the knowledge of anatomy from Italy to Spain, studied anatomy in Padua and Rome under Realdo Columbo and Barth. Eustachi. Although he says himself that he merely copied Vesalian figures, we nevertheless find several figures which do not occur in Vesalius' works, e. g. a muscle-manikin holding his skin in his righthand and a dagger in his left; several representations of the abdominal muscles, of the omentum and the intestines, representations of the principal veins, and many others.—Several leaves very waterstained in places, traces of use, besides complete copy of this interesting work. The work, in recent catalogues, is prized 10 Pounds.

See reproduction on both covers of the catalogue.

330. VARCHI, Benedetto. La prima parte delle lezioni nella quale si tratta della generatione del corpo umano e de' mostri. 140 leaves. With arms on the title. 8vo. Vellum. Florence, Giunta, 1560. Lit. 30.—

Interesting relation on generation and especially on monsters. Varchi, 1503-1565, was a celebrated historian. Only the first, but the most interesting part of the « Lezzioni ». Gamba, 1007.

331. VASTAPANI, P. J. Exercitatio physico-medica : Ex physica, de principiis metallorum. 83 pp. 8vo. Half vellum. Turin, 1767.
Lit. 28.—

332. VERHEYEN, Philippus. Anatomia corporis humani. 2 vols. 8 leaves, 403 pp., 16 pp., 348 pp. With 40 anatomical copper-plates in the first vol. and 6 in the second. 4to. Old vellum. Naples, 1734.
Lit. 110.—

333. VESALIUS, A. De humani corporis fabrica libri septem. 6 leaves, 510 pp., 23 leaves. With 20 full-page woodcuts, about 130 large and small cuts in the text and initial letters. Folio. Old limp vellum. Venice, Franciscus Senensis and Jo. Criegher, 1568.
Lit. 1850.—

Very scarce edition of this standard work of anatomy.

«Vesalius (1514-64) the most commanding figure in European medicine after Galen and before Harvey was a pupil of Jacobus Sylvius, and showed at first the conventional tendencies of this scholiast. Five years experience as prosector at Padua culminated in the magnificent «De fabrica humani corporis», a work which marks an epoch in breaking with the past and throwing overboard Galenical tradition. The effect of a publication so radical on a forelock-pulling age was immediate and self-evident.

The «Fabrica» is sumptuously illustrated by Titian's pupil, Jan Kalkar, who was the first to attain what Choulant calls the true anatomic norm, that is, a picture at once scientifically exact and artistically beautiful, summing up, as in a composite photograph, the innumerable peculiarities and minor variations in structure encountered in dissection. The splendid woodcuts, representing majestic skeletons and flayed figures, set the fashion for over a century, and were copied or imitated by a long line of anatomic illustrators» (Garrison).

Several leaves with large but faint waterstains in places, some slight traces of use, nevertheless a very good and complete copy of this really rare edition. A work which should not be missing in any library.

334. VESALIUS, Andreas. De corporis humani fabrica. 3 leaves, 510 pp., 23 leaves. With fine frontisp., 20 full page woodcuts and about 130 large and small cuts in the text. Folio. Half cloth. Venice, I. A. et I. de Franciscis, (1604).
Lit. 250.—

Choulant p. 48. Our copy of this rare book wants the first leaf bearing only the printed title, and the Anatomia Ephesi at the end (10 leaves supplement); half of the engraved title-page gone, but text and figures of the Fabrica itself complete. Complete copies are prized in recent catalogues 1,000 lire.

335. VICO, Giovanni di. La pratica universale in chirurgia. Con un compendio che tratta dell'istessa materia da Mariano Sancto Baroliano. Con due trattati in materia delle ferite. 4 leaves, 558 pp., 1 leaf. With some woodcuts representing surgical instruments. Stout 4to. Vellum. Venice, Zoppino, 1581.
Lit. 95.—

This work is an important contribution to surgery, especially in regard to the treatment of gunshot wounds.—Several leaves waterstained.
