THE RESIDENCE FOR SALE. Early Possession.

CONDITIONS OF SALE.

1.—The highest bidder to be the Purchaser, and if any dispute arise between two or more bidders, the lot in dispute to be put up again at the discretion of the Auctioneer, or the Auctioneer may declare the Purchaser. No person to advance less than 1s. at each bidding; above five pounds, 5s.; and so on in proportion; no person to retract a bidding. The Auctioneer to have the power to refuse a bidding at his discretion and to bid on behalf of the Vendor in the case of lots (if any) upon which there is a reserve and also to withdraw any lot previously or at the time of sale, and to be the sole arbitrator in every matter of dispute.

2.—The Auctioneer to guarantee the genuineness, or authenticity, of the goods of the Vendor, and they to be liable for any default on the part of the Vendor.

3.—The Purchaser to pay the purchase money in full, or in part payment, at the place of abode, and before the lots are removed, than Four o'clock on the day of sale, at the Purchaser's risk, without any allowance of kind. Any damage or loss of goods by the person purchasing is considered responsible for.

4.—The clerk is not to be allowed to transfer any lot, and the deposit paid on any one lot shall be held to apply to all lots bought by the same Purchaser.

5.—The Auctioneers reserve the right of altering the arrangement of the lots, by selling two or more lots as one lot, or in any other way they may think proper.

6.—In the event of the Vendor being unable, from any cause whatsoever, to deliver the whole or any portion of a lot, the right is reserved to make an allowance at the rate at which such lot may have been purchased.

LASTLY.—Upon failure of complying with the above conditions the deposit money shall be forfeited; all lots uncleared within the time limited to be re-sold (either by public or private sale), and the deficiency (if any), together with all the expenses attending the removal, warehousing and re-selling the same, shall be made good by the defaulter at this present sale.

N.B.—No cheques taken.
