WAKEFIELD.

Dear Mr. Foster

1. I'm most obliged to you for taking so much trouble on my behalf. I had no knowledge of the money value of my arms collection. I thought the Indian arms would sell best.

2. I enclose a note about the Ordnance trophies.

3. You should, however, tell your purchaser the following:

(a) The weapons in Lot 95 are relics of the late Great War & did not come from
