DRAWN BY J. T. SMITH APRIL 1. 1802

ENGRAVED BY W. M. FELLOWS

View of Broken Cross, formerly so called, situate at the southern extremity of Thieving Lane (alias Bow Street), & partly over-hanging a long ditch, which now forms Princes Street. These very ancient & shabby buildings completely intercept a grand North-west View of Westminster Abbey.
London, Published on the 1st day of June 1st 1803, by John Thomas Smith, N^o. 31, Castle Street, East Oxford Street.
