

M0006443: "Greek Water" for the cure of venereal disease, 1745

Publication/Creation

16 November 1939

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/fmy8gjew>

License and attribution

Wellcome Library; GB.

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

GREEK WATER.

By his Majesty's Royal Patent.

To the PUBLICK.

This Water is an effectual, easy and safe Cure and Preservative for any Sort of Venereal Distemper. If a Man or Woman, so soon as they perceive themselves to have got the French Disease, make use of this most excellent GREEK WATER, they shall be certainly cured with Ease and Safety in three Days; and such Persons who make Use of it by Way of a PRESERVATIVE, shall always be free from any Venereal Infection, as great many People have experienced every Day.

All Persons, who value their Health, muste think themselves happy in having it in their Power to keep themselves always clean, and free from all Harm, and not to incur that, which draws most commonly the worst of Consequences with it.

To be had at the Sign of the Grecian, in Exeter-Court near Exeter-Change in the Strand; at Mr. Rogers's, at the Civet-Cat and Orange in the Poultry, almost over-against the Poultry Compter; at the Turk's Head the Corner of James-Street End, in Long-Acre; and at the Sign of the Acorn, over-against the Angel Inn, Piccadilly. The Price Half a Guinea a Bottle, with Directions. A proper Instrument One Shilling.