

M0006574: Cases of sleeping sickness in East Africa, Robert Koch expedition

Publication/Creation

30 January 1940

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/yjuh48ft>

License and attribution

Wellcome Library; GB.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org <https://wellcomecollection.org>

Robert Koch
in Dar-es-Salaam

Man suffering from Sleeping Sickness
no visible external symptoms yet

Picture of Robert Koch's Expedition to the former German Protectorate East-Africa, in order to study the nature of Sleeping-Sickness and to organize the fight against it.

Four cases of Sleeping Sickness
no visible external symptoms yet

Sick Man
pains in head and chest

Sick Man,
pains in head

Sick Man,
pains in head

Child, serious case

Man, serious case

Man, serious case

Man, serious case

Young Girl, serious case

Grave in front of derelict hut

Sick Man with Glandular Swelling
on Neck

Sick Man with Glandular Swelling
on Neck

Man with Swelling on Eye-Lid

Child with Swelling on Eye-Lid

Erecting Hospital (barrack system)

Cases with their Identification Discs

About Glossina Palpalis
common tsetse-fly