had very little hope of any extrais in the way of Christmas face as we had had been Hold that

The Christmas edubrations of 1944 were not on the same scale as those of Christmas 1943, but as was painted out in the speech by the Commandant on Christmes morning the difficulties of supply of festive face and the scherity of was briditions are fully realised By the prisoners in this camp. The estorts of the Commandant and Nippon Officers to obtain Christmes fare and to make the celebrations as enjoyable as was possible under difficult circumstances was fully appreciated by all the prisoners in this Camp, and May are very then Root to the Commandant and Nippon offices for their generous gifts of Edical have aguast. cirarettes, swiets and Doangles from the Christmas Tree in addition to the pix, jour, bananas and sweet ten provided through the CooRhauge. The thoughtfulness of the Commandant and Nippon offices in allowing us to hold and religious services in the morning and the rand service during the effection was freatly efficiented. In the issue of mail from home, a total of 670 letters;
