Mr. Alexander Copland Surgeon there who made choice of the said Sir William Maxwell to be their Preses.

The meeting proceeded to take into their consideration the matters referred to them by the last meeting of the Commissioners of Supply - and having inspected the two Subscriptions papers for raising a fund towards carrying on the building of an infirmary and for the annual support of the house, they found that the sums already subscribed towards the said building amounted to near four hundred pounds - and that the sum subscribed for the support of the house amounted to upwards of seventy pounds notwithstanding that the greater part of the Noblemen
