length found what you & I observed she was so strenuously
seeking for, a bad fold,
which as usual is accompanied with spitting of blood. She must now, if the weather the storm be confined to her room till the return of summer. How wonderfully constructed is the female mind; &

we as well confess, while we are about it, the male too. I wish you
all possible success in your new undertaking.

Haynes wife
brings you a Pheasant

My best regards
to Mrs P.

Truly Yrs
