OXFORD.

31st January, 1919.

Dear Thompson,

The enclosed will be an interesting addition to your Jenner collection. The letter is from Dr. Waterhouse of Boston, sometimes called the American Jenner as he introduced vaccination into the U.S.

By it and by Dr. Lyman Spalding's reply you will see that they tried to make it a commercial affair: this I did not know.

With kind regards,

Sincerely yours,

M. A. S.
