

M0011524: Letter from Edward Jenner to T. Pearce, 21 April 1803

Publication/Creation

1950

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/t43xnrfk>

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org <https://wellcomecollection.org>

Any body might have foretold that such a Redick would not have been verified. Honors, most certainly fall down upon me in abundant showers but Honor won't buy them - However I won't complain - every thing goes on very well - Mr Sumner begs to unite his best wishes with mine for the welfare of you & yrs.

To Lawyer

Yrs. S. & servt.

E Sumner

I thought to have written some to George or Henry by this Post but am too late - Pray tell them so.

What a blow Harry Addington gave to the Lords Thursday - I fear he won't do for us much longer.

Written to
T. Pearson
Attorney, Berkeley

Ac Mead Street

April 21st 1863

Dear Lawyer

I am greatly obliged to you for the detail of your investigations respecting the Premises in the Lane. Of course it throws me into some embarrassment, but yet I would wish you to make some further inquiries. The Wife of the late Edward Lomax (Frank's father) was a gardener, sister to the late Walter Gardner. The gardeners are all dead gone - I say gone, for I do not believe that any one of Walter's Children left any offspring - The sons were for the most part dissolute & died either at Berkeley or in the hospitals reserved for sailors. Do you think it probable that Claimant