

M0011928: Reproduction of part of a letter from Edward Jenner (1749-1823) to Edward Davies, Esquire, from an unknown source

Publication/Creation

1951

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/hfrd449c>

License and attribution

Conditions of use: it is possible this item is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. For other uses you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s).

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org <https://wellcomecollection.org> a foster Mother if necessary. Tell your Father not to be seduced by those gleams of flattery and shine which will soon be sent forth.

The warmth of his own fire side will suit him much better. This advice may perhaps

My dear Edward

Mr Brews application could never have reached me at a more lucky hour.
after a series of efforts, I have at length obtained permission for Capt. Milman, the son of my friend 1st Francis Milman, to return to England; and this is ^{the} only Prisoner of War whose release I was ever able to procure, & indeed the only Prisoner of any description I have loosened from the grips of the Emperor for some years past. You must see then the impossibility of my presenting another petition for a long time to come, &! the war unfortunately continues, which in be applicable to one of his sons. I don't mean the hardy Robert whose constitution can bear the cold bath in the middle of a cold wintry night.

Adieu - Truly Yrs Edw. Jenner
Chesham 15 Feb: 1816

No 4. Feb 1816

Edw. Jenner Esq
Newly House
Wood
Glossopshire