

M0011058: Letter from Edward Jenner to Dr. John Le Carro, London, 4 May 1807: last page

Publication/Creation

1949

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/dj8pyqbw>

License and attribution

This work has been identified as being free of known restrictions under copyright law, including all related and neighbouring rights and is being made available under the Creative Commons, Public Domain Mark.

You can copy, modify, distribute and perform the work, even for commercial purposes, without asking permission.

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org
<https://wellcomecollection.org>

he himself had seen, to assume the character of a quadruped, to bellow like a Bull & to but like that animal!

I hope you will find time to give me the facts you allude to respecting the progress of Vaccination in Syria. Every detail of this ~~most~~ sort is interesting.

This will be brought to you by a very respectable English Surgeon Mr Montague, attach'd to the Embassy that is (I believe this very hour) about to depart for Vienna. Mr Montague will be good enough to

Dr. Jenner
London
16 Mar: 1807

J. de Larro
Vienna

& NB. He alludes to my third son, to whom I gave the name of Edward, on account of my profound veneration for Dr.
Edward Jenner. J. de Larro, M.D.

²⁴₄₄ coming also a small Pamphlet, written by a gentleman in whose society I live a good deal, in the country, & who has access to my Books & Papers. You do not tell me how my young friend Edward goes on - Give him a kiss for me & believe me with sincere regard

most truly Yours

M. Pray write soon - & excuse the hurry in which I dispatch this letter.

Edw: Jenner