

M0012163: Reproduction of a double page from a manuscript of John Banister (1533-1610) from the original in the British Museum (now in the British Library)

Publication/Creation

1951

Persistent URL

<https://wellcomecollection.org/works/h8yvhq78>

License and attribution

Conditions of use: it is possible this item is protected by copyright and/or related rights. You are free to use this item in any way that is permitted by the copyright and related rights legislation that applies to your use. For other uses you need to obtain permission from the rights-holder(s).

Wellcome Collection
183 Euston Road
London NW1 2BE UK
T +44 (0)20 7611 8722
E library@wellcomecollection.org <https://wellcomecollection.org>

Then I returned and st-led my self at Shavers where I lived most for some time, and was fully & perfectly profited by my stay, and judged much my vessel back up to the same, of natural life & natural
I was great credit
to me for my stay
or for the last time
to wash my face in the sea, I had done
much of my stay
I had done much
to the occasion

offered in my private for my own use was that I had done much judgment & for the distinction of the world
showed my way up
my skill to the distinction of the world
good concision of the good & good satisfaction to the patient & the friend, not great credit to the patient
me, but the world
with my medicine
I had done much
I had done much
accident to the