ATLAS OF MATERNITY AND CHILD WELFARE CENTRES.—I. (March, 1918.)
The London Boroughs.

This map covers solely the area of the Metropolitan Boroughs. The figure in the circle denotes the number of centres in any borough. Of the figures in each area, the first gives the average number of births before the war; the second gives the infant mortality rate per 1,000 births in 1916 (compare with Schedule, pp. 88-91).
