My Reason

This Physician shall practize to reade Chirurgerie hermost thoroughly of learning of them for I have seen few good Chirurgions of any at all By reason that Chirurgerie is not now to be learned in any other place then in a Barbers Shoppe And is that Shoppe most dangerous especially in time of plague for then the ordinarie trimming of men for Clergyes must be done by those who are to do with infected persons

Note

This Philosopher and physician shall have a garden appointed to him which they shall furnish and maintain with all kinds of simples and shall be yearly allowed besides their Lectures for their afforesaid extra ordinarie charge and practizes $\text{£} 100^{\text{t}}$

Also there shall be one Reader of the civill law who shall be yearly allowed for the same $\text{£} 100^{\text{t}}$

Also there shall be one Reader of divinitie who shall be yearly allowed for the same $\text{£} 100^{\text{t}}$

Also there shall be one Lawyer who shall reade the groundes of the common lawes and shall draw the same as neare as may be into Maxims as is done in the booke of the civill lawes entituled de Regulis Juris for the more facile hearinge of his Auditorie And also shall sett downe and charge expensively the office of a Justice of peace and Sheriffe not meddling with pleas or running points of the law and shall be yearly allowed for the same $\text{£} 100^{\text{t}}$

My Reason

It is necessary that noble men and gentlemen should learne to be able to put their owne case in law and to have some Judgment in the office of a Justice of peace and Sheriffe for the more want thereof the best are oftentimes subiecte to the discretion of faire their Inferiours

Note

I would have this Lawyer to be one the younger sortt of his hearers to some exercise therein whereby they may the better grow to be able to put their owne cases and to understand perfectly the office afforesaid seeing it is as much as I would wish them to learne of the law the more they desire more knowledge the Times of court may suffice them
