greatest benefits bestowed on suffering humanity -

In this respect I would venture to suggest that in your deed of gift you should not give "full liberty to destroy any of the documents with any or all

The collection in my judgment should be preserved in its entirety & not broken up or destroyed -

Avenel - Melrose - July 29th 1907.

My dear Lister

As I left Edinburgh on Friday immediately after the "Capping" that morning delay occurred in the receipt of your letters of 25th and 27th & therefore in my acknowledgment of them -

I have been much impressed with the warmth
